

Vision of Hand Written Note from God

MAY 11th 2009
VISION OF THE LORD GOD

By Dr. OWUOR

Towards the end of the mighty repentance revival in Paris France, on May 11th 2009 night, as I was preparing to leave that country, I saw one of the mightiest visions ever. It is a vision in which the LORD God Almighty Himself literally handed me down his personal hand-written note. It virtually becomes the most important vision yet, within a series of dreams that the LORD has been giving me regarding the rapture. Today, we all agree that the rapture of the church will for sure ultimately mark the most important culmination on the Coming of the Messiah. Needless to say though, this Coming of the Messiah has been well exhibited in the bible as being a totally secret and spiritually hidden event. Nowonder, the scripture undeniably lays to bare that behold he cometh like a thief in the middle of the night (Revelation 16:15; Matthew 24:36). While the conversation of the LORD in the November vision of the wedding rings may have been a meritorious and most resounding pointer to the nearness of rapture, this particular one on the hand written note of God Almighty Himself; by all spiritual standards surpasses that dial. In the November 01 vision, the LORD Almighty deliberately presented the two golden and most glorious wedding rings in the night sky, for

*I am Coming
I am Coming
I am Coming*

the rapture of the church. This was to be a most important awakening to today's church, on the fact that the wedding of the Lamb of God has now, as a matter of fact, drawn nigh. The prelude to this extraordinaire May 11th 2009 vision of the LORD's personal note to me, includes the November 26th vision in which the LORD clearly presented how the dead will rapture on that material day. These particular dead that the LORD showed me in that November 26th vision, who will be taken up at rapture, are as a matter of fact only the holy asleep christians. Those christians who were however at the time of their death not walking in holiness, will just but become extranuclear to the rapture event. The book of Daniel chapter 12 exhaustively corroborates this November 26th vision to its entirety, to the extent that the LORD even extrapolates the two categories that will appear within the raptured church; those who will be wise and shine like the brightness of heaven versus those believers who have led many of the heathen into the righteous holiness of the LORD (Daniel 12:1-10). Yet another prologue to this written note of God included the May 3rd 2007, 5:38am vision in which the LORD lowered his golden clock into the dark midnight sky. A glance at that clock in the vision immediately made me understand just how much time is gone, since it read 11:59pm. By now, the church of Christ world-over well understands that the Messiah comes for rapture at the midnight hour (Matthew 25:1-13).

VISION OF THE Hand-Written Note FROM HEAVEN

It was about 2:50am in the deep of the night on the 11th of May 2009, when I saw the mighty vision of God Almighty. Having just completed the tremendous revival in Paris France, I was ready to leave that country in preparation for the next. But then still the revival in France had just seen such a mighty Holy Spirit visitation; that it wouldn't have been easy to forget an event. It was then that as I was still meditating on what had just occurred, and the great deliverance and healings that had taken place; that I finally and all of a sudden saw this vision of the written note. Given that I was all set on leaving France for Kenya, I must say that this vision came as a great surprise to me. And suddenly in that exceptional vision, I found myself walking along a road that was well lit with brilliant light coming from above. In that vision, without any warning, a thunderous voice spoke aloud from above saying, “Look and see what has fallen at your feet.” I can still vividly remember that in that vision, instead of looking to see what had just fallen at my feet, I as a matter of fact looked up towards the sky from where the Voice of the LORD came. I guess looking up instead of down at my feet must have come as a result of great shock with which I heard the voice from above. It was at that precise moment that I saw a small piece of paper that had been dropped from heaven and as it came down, it floated on the air just like a kite would float under the influence of the winds within the atmosphere. The piece of paper I saw coming down from heaven was glorious and its path well illuminated by the powerful light that beamed the road on which I walked. All of a sudden then, the piece of paper that had come flying from heaven finally fell on my right hand foot. It is then that I ultimately turned to look at my feet as the voice had commanded from above. Upon looking at my feet I was very surprised to see the heavenly piece of paper that had dropped there from above. And while still in this vision, I picked it up. It was then by looking at the piece of paper which I had just picked up from my feet, in this vision, that I realized it was actually a written note. At that time, the truth of the moment was just beginning to dawn upon me as I looked at the note in this vision, to the effect that I had actually just received a written note from heaven. But, when I made a further look at the note in an attempt to read it, is when I was vehemently stunned to realise that this note was actually a hand-written note. The hand-written note that I was looking at in this vision, was greatly astonishing when I realized that not only was it hand written but also that it was written by an ink pen. This to me appears to have been an ink fountain pen. However now, when it came to the actual reading of this heavenly hand-written note, I was quick to notice that the writings had as a matter of fact been written in a descending order from top to bottom and the paper being super glorious. That note was written three times in a descending order. When I looked at the first writing, that was above the two below, it read:

I am Coming.

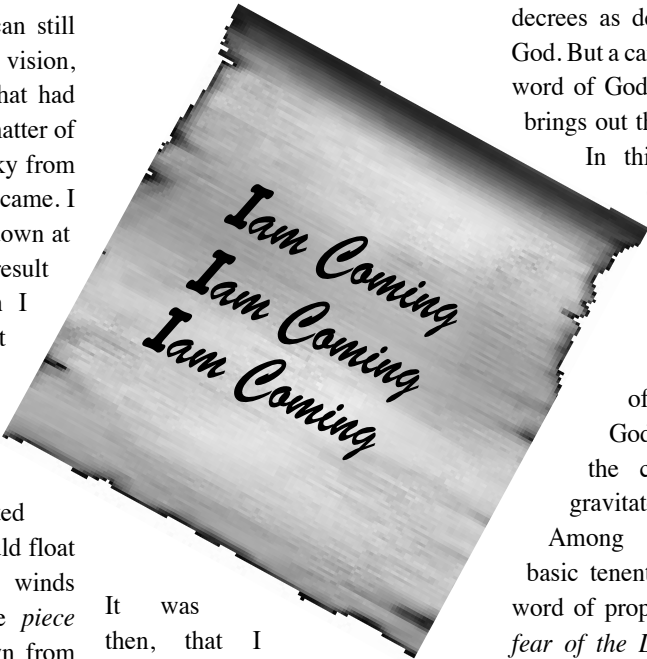

While still in that mighty vision of the LORD, when I was looking at the second sentence that was right below the first, it also read:

I am Coming.

And finally, when I read the last sentence, it still equally read:

I am Coming.

And hence, this is what the hand-written note from God Almighty from heaven read:

It was then, that I woke up from that vision at about 3:00am, to a sobering and most shocking reality that the LORD God Almighty from heaven had once again spoken about the Coming of the Messiah. I immediately went on my knees and began to pray for the church of Christ world-over having confronted the most current truth, that the Coming of the LORD has drawn very, very near.

REVELATION

While the message that the Lord is relaying through the hand-written note in this vision, may seem obvious, underneath though, is an important revelation for the church. Again, to perceive the Lord's message the holy bible will always remain the point of reference and common denominator. Nonetheless, what becomes most astonishing about this message, is that its missive is found in the last book of the bible. While Genesis is the first book of the bible, Revelation stands out as the last book of prophecy in God's Word. And hence, it is in the book of Revelation, and most importantly, on its last chapter, that Jesus himself said three times;

I am Coming.

It is in this last book of Revelation, and its last chapter 22 that the Lord mentions three times the phrase; I am Coming. The first time Jesus says I am Coming is in Revelation chapter 22 verse 7, in which he also adds that blessed are those who obey the prophecy written in this book. It greatly speaks of the treasure with which God Almighty views obedience in the church. It may hence sound though that the Lord is actually sending me to the church to sound the alarm that surely now he is going to come for the church. And as a matter of preparation, Jehovah is truly instructing the church to become obedient to every word written in this book of prophecy, the bible. Obedience to the word of God essentially implies a total compliance to the scripture and its laws and decrees as defined by the grace of God. But a careful examination of the word of God in the bible, precisely brings out the exact nature of God. In this book of prophecy, one will quickly notice that again and again, God Almighty reaffirms his holy nature. It is the understanding of this holy nature of God, that is meant to spur the church that she may gravitate towards a holy living. Among the most important basic tenents of holiness that this word of prophecy articulates, is the fear of the Lord. In fact, it is this very fear of the Lord, that the bible celebrates as constituting all wisdom (Proverb 1:7). Furthermore, coming at the brinks of rapture like we today know, there would be no better time for anchoring the church upon such a message. The Lord Jesus himself spoke in parable about the church that would make it into the rapture as that which would be in total conformity with the wise virgins of Matthew chapter 25 verses 1 through 13. Therefore, when the Lord God presented to me his hand-written note that says I am Coming, he essentially implied that the dispensation had come for the church to prepare for rapture and that obedience is going to have to be central in the church. And truly, examining the church today reveals that she is grossly disobedient to the words of the bible as God's book of prophecy. It is such awful disobedience as today seen in the church, that has led to the widespread evil and lawlessness across the nations. This is mainly because the church as the light of the world literally weilds moral authority for spiritual redress and restitution in society. Coming at such a time, one can not help but wonder whether today's modern church of Christ will be able to make it in the rapture given the lack of obedience to scripture. For today's christians, they do not walk the talk. Obedience to scripture will also have to mean that in this last stretch towards rapture all man must avoid and abstain from the current rampant sexual sin that has literally marooned generations and nations. For example, today's global escalated spread of HIV/AIDS is directly related to the increase in sexual immorality that has befallen this age. But we all know that sexual immorality is driven by an evil spirit whose authority can be not only diminished, but also crushed by the Holy Spirit. Such deliverance can only happen in a church that is completely obedient, compliant and in conformity with the written word of the bible as God's book of prophecy. To further emphasize the importance of obedience to God's words in these last days, one need not go anywhere, but to turn to that classical scripture of Hebrews chapter 12 verse 14. In there is well scribed the gravity of holiness as the Holy Spirit says... For without holiness, no one will see the Lord. Obedience to this critical scripture will definitely be the catch on the day of rapture. Thence the message from the LORD, on that May 11th 2009, is absolutely clear to all people, that the Messiah's Coming has now drawn very, very near. Put in a layman's terms, one would simply say that the LORD has literally sent me a hand-written secret note from his throne in heaven, alerting me that the Messiah is Coming. The launching around the discussion of this hand written note is the vivid testimony of the endless love and concern that God the Father has vested onto the church. It is as though Jehovah God Almighty has invested so much into the life of the church to the extent that the damages would be utterly grievous in the event that the church fails to enter into rapture. Such a heavy and costly investment, surely we can all attest to today, considering the precious Blood of Jesus, His one and only begotten Son, that was shed at calvary for the very purpose that the church be exonerated from sin and allowed a gracious entry into the kingdom of God. It indeed was a costly investment that literally saw Jesus abused on the cross as the Father God in heaven held his breath. Conveying a message of this magnitude to the church of Christ does not often come with the heavy responsibility on the part of the messenger. It is that responsibility that created fear immediately after the vision, very well knowing that if the content of this hand-written heavenly note is not correctly propagated unto the four ends of the earth, a penalty beholds. This is a crucial message of repentance and preparing the way for the Coming of the Messiah. The christians are today under a heavy indictment to the extent that they have not kept the words of scripture from the bible in their hearts on a daily basis even unto the end. Moreover, the second time that Jesus mentions I am Coming in the book of Revelation chapter 22 verse 12, one sees clearly that the Lord is quick to mention the reward in his hand, a reward he gives to everyone according to their deeds. This mention of an award ceremony at his coming, does not show any departure at all from the events of the book of Daniel chapter 12 verses 2 and 3, in which the Holy Spirit gives a clear portrayal of the rapture proceedings. In that scripture, Daniel the prophet of the Lord saw the vision of rapture with those who were wise to shine with the glory of the brightness of heaven, while their counterparts who led many into the holiness of God, were to equally be raptured with the countenance equitable to stars forever and ever. It bespeaks the proceedings that will consummate the post-rapture charge at the judgment seat of Christ when she would have to account for everything she ever thought, heard, seen, did, and even meditated over. That means that the Lord will eventually have to reward the raptured christians differently even at the wedding supper of the Lamb of God. This juncture can only remind one of what the bible says about the race that the christians are on; a race for which they are being urged to strive for the first prize. To decode this further, one clearly sees that being a christian alone is not enough. While transforming into a holy christian becomes virtually a necessary but not sufficient to the high prize in heaven. The true test of christianity then can only emerge from believers who will have chosen a holy living, while in their light leading many into the righteousness of the Lord (Revelation 19:6-9). Finally but not least, the last words of Jesus Christ of Nazareth in the bible are found in the very book of Revelation chapter 22 verse 20, when the Lord himself terminated his conversation with man by saying ...Yes. I am Coming. Given that the last words of Jesus as he terminates his spoken Word in the bible, is I am Coming, then it can only mean that we have as a church arrived at the terminal phase of events towards rapture. Prudent is the christian believer that prepares in holiness and says Amen! Amen! Come, Lord Jesus! Such a believer will for sure have realized the fine linen, bright and clean in their christian walk. Listen to me the nations of the earth, Listen to me heaven, Listen to the words of my mouth; Thus saith the Lord

May those who have ears listen and prepare the way of the Lord (Isaiah 40:3; Isaiah 35:8-10). Amen!

But when the Prophet of the Lord asked for the Power of God to visit the stadium, the Power of God descended on the stadium in such a tremendous way, to the extent that many paralytics were instantly healed as they began to jump, walk, and stretch. In the Picture is Iris Akinyi whose left paralysed hand from birth, was instantly healed as she began to stretch it for the first time in her life. Joy, Joy and joy unspeakable as the Servant of the Lord celebrates the healing Power of Jehovah, the God of Israel. Glory to God Almighty for performing such mighty works in our midst, and in our lifetime.

PROPHECY OF THE UPCOMING HORRENDOUS DROUGHT

The Remedy Is National Repentance

June 10th 2009 VISION OF THE LORD

By Dr. OWUOR

On the night of June 10th 2009, the Lord God Almighty, the Father of our Lord Jesus commanded me to pass judgment on the land. And when I used my left prophetic finger to speak the judgment of the Lord over the land, I saw a horrendous drought and water shortage hit the land of Kenya. In that vision of the divine judgment of the Lord, when the horrific drought appeared in the land, I saw the onset of a very severe water shortage in Nairobi. A great number of people in the tall buildings of this city and other towns were looking for water even using the washrooms, but there was none. I also saw the majority of washrooms in the offices locked, giving birth to a great distress in the office buildings and homes. And then, at that juncture of the acute water shortage, the Spirit of the Lord lifted me up and took me to their homes. When I passed through their homes, I saw a great number of households leaving plates and cups that had been used without washing for many days. It was however very astonishing to see the households reuse dirty utensils for cooking and serving food because of the acute shortage of water that I saw reigning in the land, in that vision. It caused a lot of anxiety, fear and pain across the entire country.

Moreover, from that point on, the Spirit of the Living God lifted me up again and this time he took me across the farms and homesteads in the rural communities. Arriving there, then the voice of the Lord spoke saying, “Look and see how the cows are dying from the severe drought and thirst.” Immediately, I looked towards my right then I was able to see the cattle that were under severe drought and thirst. The thirst was so horrendous that the Lord showed me the eyes of the cattle as fading away in very deep pain as they died from thirst, one by one. It was a most painful situation to behold, in this vision. The Lord then further showed me many households who were in anguish over the drought. And when I looked at the households again, I saw that they had an acute shortage of food. A huge starvation, hunger and famine then broke out in the land. But most awful was the fact that the dead carcasses of the cattle, sheep, goats, donkeys, and dogs throughout emitted a horrendous stench of death across the land. Heaps and heaps of carcasses littered the land as vultures, wolves and the birds bore with

A GRIM REMINDER OF 2006 DROUGHT: If the horrific 2006 drought is anything to go by, then this time around the nation of Kenya must repent before the Lord to avert a massive calamity. In September 2005, while at a meeting in Dodoma, Tanzania, the Lord spoke with his Prophet Dr. David Owuor and commanded him to prophesy the coming of that drought. It was astounding and stunning to see the appearance of that drought in January 2006. AND NOW COMES THE 2009 DROUGHT PROPHECY: Now, the Lord God Almighty has again commanded his Prophet to proclaim the coming of a horrendous drought into this land. Surely these pictures will this time around act as a very important grim reminder of what a failure to repent can mean to the land. Kenya must repent in a full-scale National Repentance.

BRINGING THE 2006 DROUGHT TO AN END: When God Almighty sent the Servant of the Lord to Njoro in that January 2006, the Man of God Dr. Owuor asked the Lord to hear him, and he commanded heaven to hear him, then he also commanded the nations of the earth to hear the words of his tongue. It is after all these utterances that he looked up into the sky and commanded heaven to open and release rain. And God Almighty heard him and released instant rain at Njoro, a rain that covered the whole nation thereby bringing an end to the horror of drought that had engulfed the land of Kenya. (A) Before the rain when the prayer for rain was made. (B, C, D) When heaven obeyed, and released rain.

their beaks into the rotten bellies of the carcasses. Severe drought had entered the land. And then I woke up from this dream and immediately called the Jesus is Lord radio, and was put live on air. Live on air, I immediately passed the judgment of the Lord against this land.

IMPLICATION

Throughout biblical history, the earth has seen its own share of severe droughts and famine. As a matter of fact, going by the biblical calendar of events, one is able to quickly map out the cyclical nature of these droughts and famines. One of them is that which occurred during the time of Isaac, the son of Abraham. Yet others occurred even during the time of Jacob when the children of Israel were forced to go into Egypt to purchase some grain. That was the time when Joseph became a high ranking official in Egypt. And going by these cycles of droughts, it would be highly predictable that the planet earth is right now overdue for a horrendous drought and famine of its lifetime.

Apostasy

However, what does the bible say about droughts in this spiritual dispensation? When the bible speaks about the rapture of the church, it also lays out the prophetic timeline distinguishable by certain major spiritual landmarks. One such landmark can be seen in the book of Matthew chapter 24 verse 4 through 10, when the Lord Jesus himself proclaimed that in the last days, immediately prior to the rapture, people will be misled by false prophets who will be propagating a great gospel of deception that is meant to delude and lull the church from preparing for the Coming of the Messiah. And the Lord Jesus said that these false prophets will lead many astray in what will constitute the greatest manifestation ever, of apostasy in our time. This kind of apostasy though, we can all agree, that it has already started to manifest in the church and gone on for quite a course. Today, one hears of Evangelists and false prophets who blatantly ask the nations they are visiting to deposit certain amounts of millions of dollars or shillings into their accounts prior to their arrival in those countries. Also, on top of that they are known to require that their private jet aeroplanes be fully fuelled from their home countries to the destination mission countries. And when offering is to be taken in those meetings, they gather it away and leave. These are the false prophets who peddle the gospel of prosperity which lacks in holiness. The implication here is that a great apostasy visiting the church at this time was a spiritual landmark that Jesus foresaw as coming to the earth, in the days prior to rapture.

WHY THE APOSTASY

The prophetic is the most important finger of the five-fold ministries, that the church was graciously endowed with. This is entirely because the prophetic anointing is always the closest to the Lord God Almighty, for the express purpose of serving Christ Jesus of Nazareth. When the prophetic ministry operates in the church, then the believers can see very clearly that God Almighty is a holy God who demands from them a holy living. The prophetic will often rebuke sin and centralize the holiness of God in the church. And this, the prophetic does regardless of fear and favour. Moreover, as the prophetic navigates the way into the land, it can always be seen very clearly how God speaks to man. Verily, verily, the prophetic even in the bible, has always been the true model of God’s anointing unto the church.

GLOBAL ECONOMIC CRISIS AND FAMINE: The prophecy was given at a little village town in Kenya called Nakuru, right in the presence of more than 2 million people. But this prophecy stunningly affected the four corners of the earth todote.

Like the kidney is to the body, so is the prophetic to the church. The kidney is a very interesting organ that at times seems to operate on its own calendar. When the kidney is fully functional in the body, it receives large quantities of body fluid and begins to filter them through in several volumes of quarts. It has been estimated that hundreds and hundreds of quarts of body fluid pass through the kidney on a daily basis. And as the fluids do this, they are purified and several quarts of toxic waste are filtered off hence eliminated from the body. This is what keeps the checks and balances on the health of the body that nothing many go wrong. It is also a critical process that keeps the other functioning organs healthy and functional. But when the kidney in the body becomes damaged, a lot of excess toxic waste get their way into the bodily fluids and begin to harm the health of the person. Their functionality is then diminished below potential, and they are quickly thrown into ruination. Then one finds that toxins are circulating together with the important body fluids. The same goes for the spiritual in the church. Because the prophetic ministry in the church is intended to sieve out the toxins that might get their way into the blood stream of the believer, the prophet is actually very critical for the well being of the church. Therefore, this kind of synonym can only imply that the prophetic was rightfully intended by the Lord, to thrust out the toxic sin of immorality, adultery, lies, the false gospel of prosperity, witchcraft, and all manner of evil. That can only mean that there has been a problem in the prophetic in the church, considering that all these spiritual toxins have found their way into the “bloodstream of the church”. It’s nowonder that the church has malfunctioned for quite a long time now. But, God Almighty is always in the business of repairing and restoring his relationship with man. There is no better time at which this statement holds much water than now when the rapture has drawn nigh.

Droughts & Famine

In this current prophecy of June 10th 2009, the Lord has spoken a horrendous drought in the horizon. This kind of drought was earlier on pronounced by our Lord Jesus, in the book of Matthew chapter 24 verses 7 and 8. At that time the Lord Jesus said that nations and kingdoms would proclaim wars against each other, and there would be famines and earthquakes in many parts of the world. But, all this he said, would be only the beginning of horrors to come (birthpains). This beginnings of horrors (birthpains) was intended by the Lord to be spiritual demarcations that would hint on the Coming of the Messiah having drawn near. And that is the reason that the current drought prophecy becomes an important marker towards the rapture. It then now becomes clear that this prophecy of drought is essentially intended to invoke a massive wave of repentance revival into the church of Christ. This is because to the believers, it is not drought per sey, but acts as a sign that the Coming of the Messiah has drawn quite proximate. That is the only reason that the Lord sends me to prophesy these horrendous episodes of the begins of horrors. It is intended for the sole purpose of awakening the church to the dispensation in which she has stumbled. It is absolutely obvious today, that the true horrors will appear across the ends of the earth immediately following the rapture of the church. Those horrors will essentially elevate the current famines, droughts, global recession, violence and war in the tribulation. There will be literally three and a half years of tribulation, followed by an addition of three and a half years of the great tribulation at which devil worship will be pushed to the max (Revelation 13; Daniel 7). However, this will not happen until he that holds the lawless one (antichrist) is removed from the ends of the earth (2 Thessalonians 2). It is apparently clear today that the Holy Spirit is the One that is holding back the antichrist in this dispensation, and his removal following rapture will practically usher in a dark season for the earth. The church as the light of the world continues to illuminate luminescence of spiritual rays that continue to give a little light today (Matthew 5:13-16). It therefore makes sense that no christian should wait for additional horrors to emerge, but should otherwise just repent and prepare the way for the Coming of the Messiah.

THE CURRENT GLOBAL RECESSION

When the Lord spoke with me on that

Prophecy of the Coming Tsunami & Mountain Quake Vision of June 17th 2009

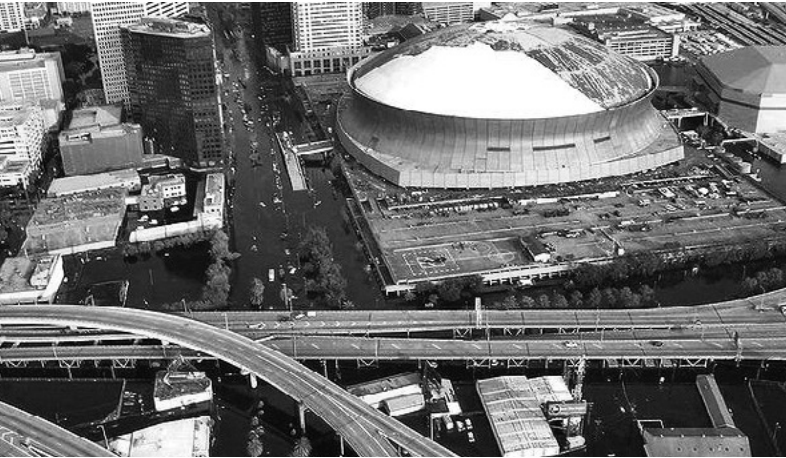

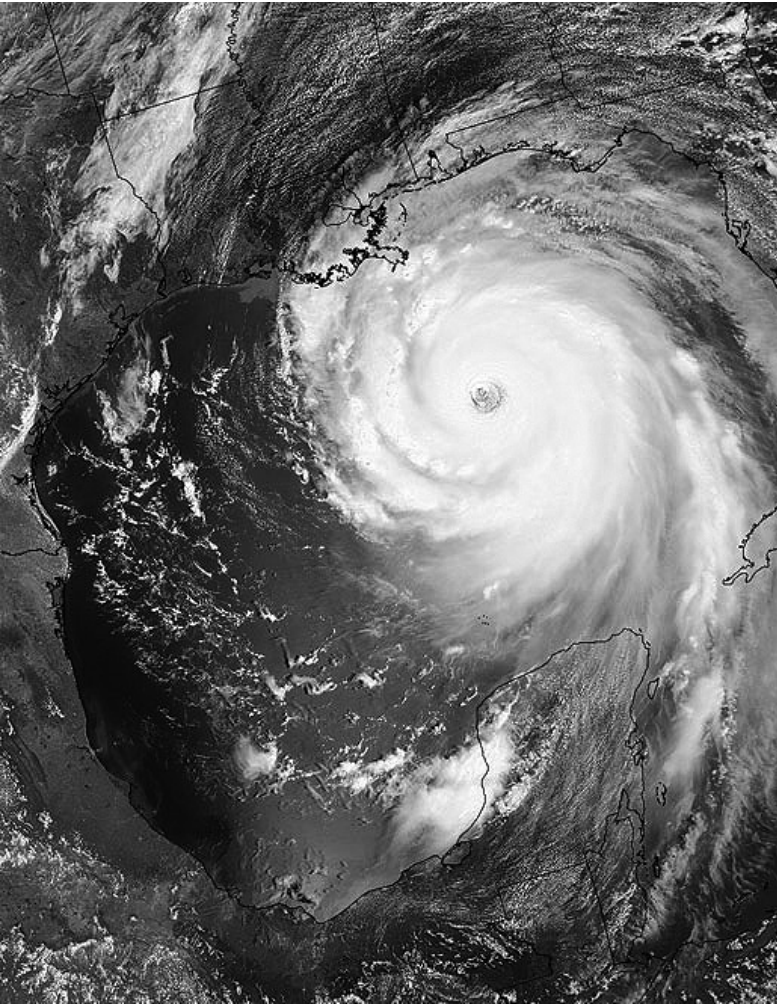

By Dr. OWUOR

On the night of June 17th 2009, the Lord God Almighty, the Mighty God of Elijah, commanded me in a vision, to extend my denunciation of sin to the coastal regions, and declare that only Jehovah is to be worshipped. In that dream, the Mighty God of Israel instructed me by voice to pronounce judgment onto the coastal regions by the oceans. Immediately I used my left prophetic finger to declare the judgment of the Lord over the coastal strips, the Lord then lifted me up in the Spirit and put me on a coastal strip by the ocean. It is then that I was able to observe in that dream, the onset of the judgment of the Lord on the people of the coastal regions. I see the oceanic waves coming inland and failing to stop at their usual place. I see that upon the pronouncement of this judgement in the vision of God, high tides of angry waves of fury are coming at different frequencies. I see them coming in different waves, one after the other. And then I also see a lot of people in extreme panic and shock running for their lives towards the higher grounds. The people I that has angered Jehovah. However, the land to which the Spirit of the Lord lifted me, is a coastal beach that has a slight hill or mountain elevated right next to it. So I see people and everybody running for their lives as the angry waves continue to come ashore in high tide with the first ones knocking down the people as the subsequent waves come to bury them. However, what was most astonishing about that land, is that the few who managed to run and get to the bottom of the mountain could not climb that high mountain or hill. I can see that it is a dry hill with not much vegetation. But as they are there fearing that the waves of hot pursuit will catch up with them at the foot of the mountain, then I was told by the voice of the Lord to look up at the top of the mountain. And when I looked up on the mountain top, I was then able to see the Angel of the Lord on top of the Mountain. It is at that very time

A grim reminder of what happens when the people fail to repent and the Lord consequently fails to tell the oceans where to stop.

even as the people were stranded at the foot of the mountain, in great panic, that a heavy earthquake hit that mountain. The earthquake I see is so severe that it is pelting down dangerous rocks towards the people that had escaped the angry waves of God’s fury. And I see these people now running away from under the foot of this mountain and hence essentially having nowhere to turn to. I see the wrath of the Lord coming to the coastal beaches. I have seen tremendous waves pursuing people with such a gusto of impunity and I see a mountain earthquake attempting to finish the few survivors. I have seen the Angel of the Lord on top of the Mountain. The land that I see has the ocean and a mountain next to the beach. I see the judgment of the Lord coming down against sin. It marks the severe beginnings of birthpains hence calling for total repentance and the turning away from sin in order to prepare the way for the Coming of the Messiah. I have seen tsunami and the mountain earthquake occur at the same time. I have seen the judgment of the Lord. I have seen the Angel of the Lord on the mountain facing the sea. Time is over. May those who have ears listen. The last time I pronounced such a judgment against the coastal beaches was on the November 24th 2004 and for sure, the horrendous deadly Asian tsunami occurred one month after that prophecy on the December 26th 2004. Another time at which I spoke the coming out of the ocean, was at Nairobi City Hall lunch hour service, on the July 20th 2005 when I warned the beaches of New Orleans to turn away from sexual sin, witchcraft and the churches there to repent from the witchcraft gospel of prosperity that lacks in holiness. And we saw, that exactly one month and nine days after that prophecy was given, on the August 29th 2005, the deadly hurricane Katrina came as the oceans failed to stop that morning. New Orleans was over run and submerged and lies in desolation even unto this moment. This time around, again the Lord has used this very prophetic tongue to ask the oceanic waves not to stop anymore, and to pursue the immoral people by the beaches as they try to escape to the higher grounds. But, I have also seen an earthquake on the higher ground, a quake that causes them to have nowhere to run to.

REVIVAL IN ZAMBIA

RIGHT: LAME WOMAN HEALED: Sharon Was Totally Lame Having Developed A Huge Tumour On Her Left Knee. The Tumour Hindered Her From Walking To The Extent That She Needed Help To Walk. Or Do Anything. But When The Prophet Of The Lord Commanded That All Tumours Dissolve In The Name Of Jesus, Her Tumour Instantly Dissolved And She Found That She Could Walk And Even Run Well. Glory To God Almighty In Heaven.

LEFT: WHEN THE POWER OF GOD VISITED LUSAKA ZAMBIA: Many people were slayed, delivered, and healed by the Holy Spirit, in a visitation that Zambians acknowledged was historic.

LEFT: Duncan had suffered immensely with painful wounds that were emitting pus all over his body since birth. After prayer by the Prophet of the Lord at Charter Hall on January 9th 2009, his wounds dried up instantly.

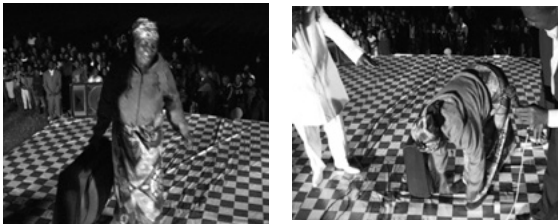

DEAF EAR HEALED: Julie was completely deaf on both ears for the past six years. She suffered so severely that she decided to get a hearing aid. The hearing aids were so expensive that she opted to buy for only one ear. Each hearing aid was Ksh 75,000.00. But, after prayer by the Prophet of the Lord at Charter Hall meeting, Julie was touched by the Power of the Holy Spirit and her deaf ears were healed as they both popped open.

ABOVE: Ameja Mbewa was a totally blind woman whose eye condition had defeated all the eye hospitals, clinics and eye doctors of Zambia. She had been told to surrender into that condition of blindness and just live on her life. Ameja had now given in to the condition of being totally blind. Among the leading eye hospitals that tried to handle Ameja's condition included the highly specialized Tokyo Eye Hospital in Lusaka Zambia. But, when Ameja was told that the Prophet of the Lord Dr. Owuor was visiting from Kenya, and that she should attend the crusade because there would be a healing service at that meeting in Lusaka, she refused because she said her husband had a cold so she could not leave him alone. But, her friend who was inviting her to the Man of God's crusade insisted and did not give her a chance by telling her that in the next five minutes she would pack by her door and force her to go to the crusade because that could be the day of her healing. AND THE LORD FINALLY OPENED AMEJA MBEWA'S BLIND EYES: When Ameja Mbewa was brought into the repentance meeting at Lusaka Zambia, and the Man of God began to pray for the sick, by proclaiming that even the blind eyes will be opened on that day, little did she know that it is she that the Prophet was talking about. With the National Broadcaster, Zambia National Broadcasting Corporation (ZNBC), covering the meeting live, when the Prophet of the Lord said, "Now I Lift Up My Left Prophetic Hand Towards God Almighty In Heaven To Help You In The Name Of Jesus, Let The Blind Eyes Open Now". That was the exact moment of Ameja's healing. When the Prophet of the Lord said, 'Now if you were blind, take your right hand and touch on your eyes, and then release your eyes and begin to see in the Name of Jesus. Ameja Mbewa was very shocked and stunned and thrilled and perplexed to a point that no words can describe, WHEN SHE FINALLY FOUND OUT THAT HER BLIND EYES HAD OPENED AND SHE COULD SEE VERY WELL. Jubilation, Celebration, Felicitation, name it, broke out in the entire crusade as the Blind Eyes of Ameja Mbewa were opened live on National Television. The entire nations watched it in shock and fear as multitudes began to give glory to God Almighty in Heaven. This caused an unusual rush at the Lusaka International Airport when the Man of God Dr. Owuor was finally leaving Zambia, because all the Flight Attendants, Air Hostesses, Security Teams, Protocol Officials, Customs Officials, Cleaning Ladies, who had watched Ameja Mbewa's Blind Eyes open live on TV, rushed to the Prophet of the Lord that he may lead them into the prayer of Salvation. They said that they wanted to receive the God who had opened the eyes of that Blind woman live on TV. And a big revival broke out in Zambia. Until now Zambia is trying to prepare major Repentance Meetings in Livingstone, Kitwe, Ndola and all the other towns. For Zambia this couldn't have come at a better time because they were now tired of being conned day and night by the false prophets from West Africa who were always demanding money with no miracles to perform.

VERY SWOLLEN LEGS HEALED: This Zambian woman had developed very swollen legs for more than 2 years. The legs were so swollen that she could not walk well, neither could she wear shoes. But when the Prophet of the Lord Dr. Owuor, asked God Almighty to visit the Meeting, the Mighty Power of God befell the Edwin Eboila Stadium in Lusaka Zambia. And this woman's legs were instantly healed. She immediately began to walk, run and jump as people celebrated and gave Glory to God Almighty in Heaven.

TWO YEARS OF ACUTE BACK & CHEST PAIN INSTANTLY HEALED IN LUSAKA ZAMBIA: When the Lord set her free, she could even bend for the first time.

A HUGE TUMOUR DISSOLVES: This man had lived with a huge tumour on his left hand. The tumour had caused him not to be able to use his hand at all. But when the Prophet of the Lord entered the meeting, he spoke of a man with a tumour and that it would dissolve. And for sure, the tumour dissolved as the young man wept. What particularly caused the young man to weep is that he felt how the tumour was dissolving.

The Upcoming National Repentance

MILLIONS TO THRONG NAIROBI

By STAFF WRITER

Right after the Prime Minister Raila Odinga’s historic baptism, the Lord showed his Prophet Dr. David Owuor a mighty vision of a humongous repentance meeting of more than 3 million people gathered in the city of Nairobi. The Man of God Dr. Owuor said that he saw people throng the city in a manner never seen since the birth of this nation. He cited a gathering that consumed the entire Uhuru Park across to the Serena Hotel and right into the Kenyatta Avenue. That meeting, the prophet of the Lord said, would be characterized with ministers reconciling with one another as members of Parliament beg for pardon from one another, and Kenyan communities pleading for forgiveness from each other. However, following the recent episode of the judgment of the Lord that brought the post-election violence into the country, this upcoming national repentance could not have come at a better time.

Kenya was warned.

The Lord had asked Kenya to repent in a sackcloth like did Nineveh (Jonah 3).

Why Kenya’s National Repentance Has Long Been Overdue

While it is true that the nation of Kenya is mainly composed of a God-fearing people, one cannot however, brush behind the events that culminated into the horrendous 2007/2008 post-election mayhem that gripped this nation. The violence that percolated through the entire fabric of this society was of such a magnitude that it literally threatened to tear apart the very core of nationhood that had perpetuated this land for a very long time. People were massacred in a blood-letting tirade that stretched across the four ends of Kenya. Women were literally raped before their husbands, fathers, brothers, cousins, mothers, after which those gang rapists hacked them with matchettes. Scores of churches were set on fire including the wooden crosses that symbolize the beautiful work of Jesus at Calvary, within those churches. Kenyans can never forget how a spate of lawlessness reigned in the entire land when groups of marauding youths went out on a looting rampage to grab and destroy anything they could ever lay their hands on. Some pastors were forced to sit down at arrow-point and matchette-point, to read a bible a last time before they are murdered. There were even incendeces in which those murderous youths could mock pastors before killing them by saying, ‘now read that bible the way you used to read it and let it help you.’

Churches were burnt.

Churches were burnt.

After then, the pastors were brutally hacked to death with the bibles in their hands. On the contrary, some pastors too, went out and began to loot shops thereby carrying bags of sugar, bars of soap, litres of juice, loaves of bread, jerricans of oil, bags of unga, etc. It appeared as though the entire nation had been demon-possessed to the point of oblivion. Young boys began to smoke bhang as war cries rang out across the villages, as satanic rituals were both conducted by both the mungiki elders and laibons. All these things were done on this land that God Almighty has loved so much over the decades. There are also reports that bibles were torn in the open public places during that mayhem. To make it even worse, people looted churches as they plucked away iron sheets in order to use for roofing their own residential homes. These iron sheets that once covered the shelters of the Lord are still spotting the roofs of residential homes in this nation that bears the name Kenya. Many took chairs from churches and are using them until today in their homes. Many families are eating from plates stolen from the churches that they looted, while many families have benefitted from harvesting the corn of their neighbours whom they butchered. Surely, Kenya has been long overdue for her national repentance. The peril of insurrection in the nation of Kenya, has gradually caused every popular repentance efforts in this land to be viewed with a lot of misgivings by the clergy. Whatever points towards a spiritual revival of the church has often invoked qualms and worries within church leadership. This has in the most recent past inevitably escalated such an antipathy against reformation in the land. Such a gush of money-centred church, crusades, television, and radio sermons in this nation of Kenya has for a long time been known as potentially detrimental for her spiritual well-being. Complacency seems to have engulfed the believers in this nation as to the paradise of peace within a sea of turbulence, they have lived in called Kenya. Little did Kenyans know that their rejection of biblical truth about their actual spiritual condition is what would later agitate the Lord’s fury over the land and bring forth such a horrific wrath as was witnessed in January 2008. The way things have developed in the recent past, it will be very hard for the church leadership in Kenya to exonerate herself outside the premise of repentance because the Lord may have heard them on the media as saying that the repentance is just like a passing cloud that required noone to worry about.

But considering that our precious Lord Jesus gifted the church with repentance having bore the burden of our sin and affliction on the Cross, then one can only say that Kenya would have to genuinely return to God in order to reinstate that noble sanction for the forgiveness of sin. This is particularly most severe because every discord and sin that Jesus bore was absolute torture to his spirit, and yet he was still eager to bear the sins and iniquity of man. While a section of the nation awaited edgily to hear that repentance had arrived and ultimately vanquished like a cloud, then came the judgment of the Lord. Hearts were hardened as the nation drifted away into a ‘one man for himself and God for all’ mode. The reminiscence of these ills, are at this time being invigorated because of the upcoming national repentance. The curse of God and judgment that has transpired in the land of Kenya is what has finally caused Kenyans to perceive the need to pursue the manifest presence of Christ as the Prince of peace for their country. The current regional repentance assemblies that have been planned to be conducted across the nation, especially in the areas that had bloodletting, will be the only sure way to achieve the much-needed peace and joy across communities. Once the sigh of relief that forgiveness yields will begin to animate the lives of Kenyans, then the nation will have been encouraged and blessed to honour Jesus. By such fear of God, the Saviour Jesus Christ will have been revealed in this land. That can only mean that turmoil will never again have a foothold on this country. The post-election mayhem and today’s recurrent state of inter-community suspicion present a gory evidence of a severe dysfunction at the shepherd-level in this land. Spiritual deterioration among the pastors in the church, has reached such an alarming scope that the shepherds can now publicly assent that there is nothing for free these days. Such a statement was recently done right before the Lord, such an unprecedented national repentance as about to be witnessed in Kenya can revive the entire globe. But, one sure way to invite God to re-strike Kenya would be to allow the crave

Doing it right

On the October 19th 2004, the Lord of hosts spoke with his Prophet Dr. David Owuor regarding the need for a national repentance to restore the authority in the church of Christ, as the Light of this nation in order to avert a looming wrath. God Almighty had desired that Kenya repents right from the President of the Republic wearing the sackcloth, all the way to the least person in the rural villages, also wearing a sackcloth. The Lord also demanded that this repentance be done on three consecutive days while observing prayer and fasting. But, such a repentance wasn’t forthcoming until the window of repentance quickly closed. However, now that a new beacon of hope has presented for a national repentance, then we need to be more cautious at this moment than we were then. If Kenya can this time around observe a nationwide holy assembly in the upcoming national repentance, coupled with the genuine return to the fear of the Lord, then a global revival will have exploded in the church. This is what has transformed nations from being desolate to the most fruitful vineyard of the Lord.

for prosperity gains to override the intended holiness on that material day. Such prosperity gains encopasses the whole spectrum of fleshly behaviour before the Lord, including the repentance who would merely want to be seen before television and photo cameras. That, if permitted to defile the august day, could spell calamity on the land. Because it is the twin virtues of contrition and meekness that enable nations to receive wisdom and favour from God, then it can only be imperative that Kenya strives to catch these two, at her twilight hour. This nation should this time around not allow anything or anyone to close this gracious door to the most precious opportunity that she will ever have to return to the Lord as one nation, with her king. Another tragedy that must be avoided at all costs is that of some people coming to this much-anticipated national repentance meeting as critics, who are bent on judging the event with the evil intent to belittle, minimize, and trivelize the Lord’s occasion. In this upcoming national repentance, the Lord will be looking for a nation that can be earnest and passionate, with a unique zealousness for Jesus, because of the spiritual dispensation at which this repentance has come. It is today known worldover that the Messiah is soon Coming for the glorious church. Now that the leadership of this land has finally requested for a national repentance, this can only mean that the saving and consecrating truth of the righteousness can never be shut-out from a nation that is spiritually ailing and hungry like Kenya. It is faults of this kind that must be repented over at the upcoming national meeting, since they have essentially sunk this nation into its current disorder. In the recent past, the pastors in Kenya have committed a grievous sin of reducing the holy bible to a mere instrument for earning an earthly living. This sin like all the others mentioned above, must be squarely addressed at the upcoming repentance meeting.

Kenya was commanded to repent in a sackcloth

Returning things

Most recently, the preparations for the national repentance has resulted into a most interesting form of remorsefulness that had not been achieved since the post-election mayhem. Many people from diverse communities across Kenya have began calling the Jesus is Lord radio station confessing their sin of involvement in the post-election evil and at times even weeping live on radio. The most important turn of events in this preparations for repentance did not come though, until people started calling from across the villages confessing that they were harbouring iron sheets which they had plucked from roofs of churches and wanted to return them. When others heard about the returning of stolen things live on radio, they too began to call the radio station confessing that they were hoarding chairs from churches; others confessed hoarding blankets and bedsheets from hospitals; while others still confessed using church’s plates and cups in their homes. Now, when John the Baptist preached repentance in the wilderness of Judea, he repeatedly exhorted them on the need for every process of repentance to be followed by the corresponding fruit of repentance. Given all the peace initiatives and processes that have been launched in this nation of Kenya, this particular one in which people are now willingly yearning for the opportunity to return looted goods, and rid their homes off the curse; becomes the biggest act of repentance ever witnessed in this nation. Coming at such a time when mere preparations of repentance are beginning to roll out, and the actual national day of repentance has not yet even materialized, that can only help hint at the superiority of the power of the Blood of Jesus in instigating a genuine repentance in a nation. Even as commissions were formed according to the laws of the land, well and good. But, this voluntary willingness of multitudes to return every single item that did not belong to them to a national stadium during repentance, is not only historical but also admirable. Now, the nation of Kenya can best understand why the Lord pleaded with them through his Prophet Dr. Owuor, that their deliverance and peace would only have to come from a genuine repentance and the return to Jesus. The kind of genuine repentance that one sees shaping up right now in this land of Kenya, most definitely befits a well-defined humble nation. To return stolen goods at a one-million-strong meeting in a stadium requires that one swallows up their pride and repent in a humble, broken humility. Going by this alone, one can only imagine how mighty in magnitude the day of national repentance will be for this nation, when it all rolls out. It will be such a day as has not visited this land because when the entire nation will have assembled, people of all walks of life, from all communities, they high and the lowly of this society, schools, colleges and universities; and at that sacred assembly; When the Word of the Lord will be opened, in the view of all. And then the pin-drop silence will cover the nation as the book of the new law will be opened. The reading of the Word of God will be heard by all, even across by the entire nation as it will be covered by radio and television. And the faithful God of heaven will on that day, honour and fulfil every decree at that meeting will have been declared at that meeting. That day, surely our hearts long to see materialize in the life history of this nation. It will not matter that day whether one is an Internally Displaced Person (IDP) or a well settled part of this citizenry, because every knee shall on that day bow down and every tongue confess that Jesus is Lord over Kenya.

Secret revival:

Nicodemus in Kenya

The historic salvation and baptism of the Prime Minister hon. Raila Odinga, is one event of a kind that really moved the hearts of Kenyans. Asked about the significance of that event, the Prophet of the Lord Dr. Owuor elaborated that it was a symbolic event that would lead to a national revival of repentance. Most Kenyans upon hearing this, began to grapple with trying to understand how that revival would unfold. It is during this very time of waiting, that suddenly the Prophet of the Lord has been invited into some of the highest offices in this land where ministers and top civil servants have been receiving the Lord Jesus behind the scenes. This is a new wave of revival that can only simulate the biblical Nicodemus who had to approach Jesus in the dark of night. The most important moment of surprise will hence come on the day when the Servant of the Lord baptizes all these top dignitaries in the full shine of the media. It is now apparent that there is a silent revival going on in the highest corridors of power in this land. Even within the corridors of power at the City Council of Nairobi, many high ranking officials received the Lord when Dr. Owuor visited. The Man of God has been busy buying and distributing brand new bibles to the highest levels of dignitaries in this country following their salvation. And those bibles, the Prophet of the Lord signed himself by his own handwriting. The biblical Nicodemus too, as a very high member of the Jewish council, found himself in a state at which he now needed more important answers. It would appear as though the Servants of the Lord in this land have not bothered at all, to reach the high and lofty politicians with the true Word of the salvation of our Lord Jesus. But time has now come when a greater sense of hunger has developed across the board, be it wealthy or poor, healthy or sick, highly exalted or lowly. These are the days that the Lord Jesus spoke about as being prior to the rapture of the church. All seems to be ready in this country for a very massive national repentance, healing, and harvesting of revival souls.

The Rapture of the Church

By Dr. OWUOR

Rapture of the church is the day when the Lord Jesus will return for his holy church in a flash and a twinkling of an eye. That day will come without any announcement whatsoever, like a thief in the middle of the night. The gates of heaven will open, followed by the loud command of the archangel and the mighty trumpet call of God. The Lord Jesus will then appear in the clouds, and the dead believers who are currently asleep in the dust of the earth will be awakened. These holy dead christians will resurrect and be the first to rise up in the air, to meet the Lord in the clouds. It is only after then, that those christians who will still be alive at the time of rapture, yet having lived godly lives in complete holiness at the time, will be lifted up to catch up with the rest in the air to meet The Lord.

Vision of Rapture

In a mighty visitation of May 17, 2004, the Lord God spoke with me about the coming of the Messiah. In that vision he showed me how the rapture of the glorious church of Christ will take place. Whilst still in that vision, the Lord asserted the need for the Church in the four corners of the earth to repent, walk in holiness and prepare for the glorious rapture. Ever since then, the Lord has repeatedly shown me this vision of the rapture more than four times while emphasizing on the urgency with which the church should prepare herself in holiness. In that vision, I saw the bride of Christ who will be taken up by the Lord Jesus. The church I saw being taken up was a perfect and totally glorious church that was dressed in fine linen bright and clean. One thing that clearly stood out in this mighty visitation, is the fact that on the extreme right-hand side of the sky, the voice of the archangel announced with a mighty shout saying

"Look! The Lord Is About To Appear In The Sky."

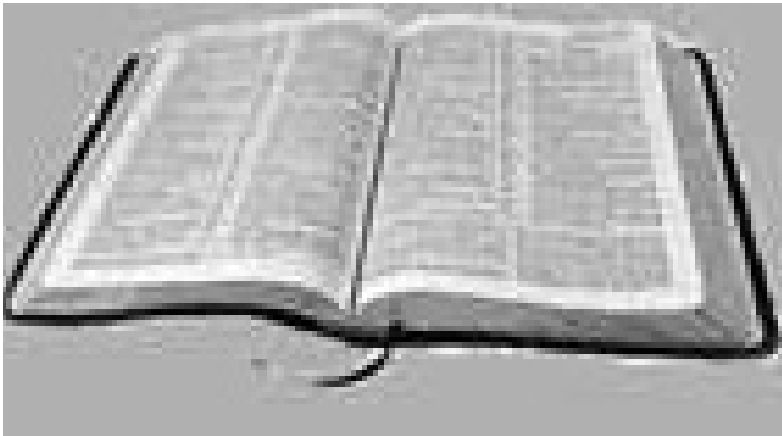

This was immediately followed by the sounding of the mighty trumpet call of the Lord God Almighty in heaven. Then the Lord Jesus appeared in the sky, and lifted up his right hand, in order to show me his nail-pierced hand. And then all of a sudden, I saw him take away his holy and glorious church.

Those are the christians that have repented, been restored by the Holy Spirit, hence representing the holy, latter church. Hallelujah, what a Mighty Vision! However, what stood out in that vision, were the mighty, large and excessively glorious hands of the Lord, that received the perfect bride of Christ (holy church). This acts as a great awakening and another revelation to the Church on the Person of Christ, the Person whose might, the Church has not well perceived. Subsequently, this vision of the rapture, was intentionally meant by God Almighty, in order to open up the 'spiritual eyes' of the church to a new realisation of the supremacy of Christ Jesus. Evidently, the church has over the centuries, walked with the Lord in a very casual relationship and hence familiarized with him to the point of taking him for granted without respecting and honouring him. Surely, this realisation that Christ Jesus is mightier than the church had earlier on perceived can be seen in the illustration of this vision. In this vision, the supremacy review her relationship with the Lord Jesus and to be in awe at his might, thereby honouring him and living to please him.

The Bible And The Rapture

Several biblical scriptures have clearly documented the day of rapture as the main spiritual event within the prophetic time-line towards the second coming of the Lord. Prior to his being was taken up by the clouds into heaven, Jesus of Nazareth promised the church that he was going to the Father's house in heaven from where he would prepare for the church a place. Subsequent to organizing a place for the church, the Lord promised to return and take the holy church so that she would be with him forever (John 14:1-3). Likewise, the bible further promises the day of rapture to be a hidden day that can only be synonymous with a thief that comes in the middle of the night (Revelations 16:15). However, the speed with which the rapture takes place has been categorized in the bible as being the equivalent of a flash in the twinkling of an eye (1 Corinthians 15:50-56). Though in this message of encouragement regarding rapture, the Lord is then able to also attach a quality aspect to the church that makes it into the wedding supper of the Lamb. Far from the popular notion that is often used generally to comfort christians, this time around in this scripture, the Lord categorically cautions churches that walk in the flesh and blood to the effect that they would not make it into the wedding of the Lamb. In its submission in the rapture, this scripture in 1 Corinthians chapter 15, does lay out certain significant features that the raptured saints must possess. One such feature is incorruptibility that the raptured church must possess at the point of being taken up. Seemingly related but not exactly same, is another spiritual character that the bible celebrates over the rapture church. This has to do with the conversion from the perishable into the imperishability. Last but not least is the fact that the rapture church having overcome the sinful desires of the flesh through the infilling of the Holy Spirit, then defeat death. Since the wages of sin is death, at rapture we see a more important fulfilment of bible prophecy by the conversion from mortal to immortality, of the rapture church. It still becomes very critical while talking about the rapture, to properly position the particular elements that the book of Genesis chapter 1 verse 26 brings out. In that scripture, God Almighty proclaimed the creation of man in his own image and likeness. But we know too well that the image and likeness of God is not only incorruptible, but also imperishable, and immortal. Moreover, since God does not see death; then it can only mean that it is strictly on the day of rapture that the church of Christ that has overcome sin and death, attains the perfect stature of maturity in the image and likeness of God. However, not only does the book of Revelation chapter 16 verse 15 expound on the stealthy manner of the Lord's return for the church but it is also 'spiked' in with components on how to prepare for rapture. And that scripture the Lord says, 'Behold, I come like a thief and blessed is he who stays awake and keeps his clothes with himself that he may not go naked and be shamefully exposed.' (Revelation 16:15).

What immediately strikes one in this scriptural description of rapture, is the fact that there is a warning on sleepiness that will consume the church in the dispensation right prior to rapture. And the mere fact that sleepiness if foretold as one of the main features of that season, also implies that the Lord will come back in the darkness at night time. But all this sleepiness and darkness is clearly referred to in a spiritual context. Today it is common knowledge that going by the shaping of events around us on a daily basis, we have for sure entered into a period of the greatest spiritual darkness that has ever visited the earth. The corresponding level of darkness that has equally visited the house of the Lord, is the best ever pointer to the fact that the church has fallen asleep. In fact, the book of Matthew chapter 13 verse 24 lays it to bare that on every occasion that the church falls asleep, the enemy walks in and sows weed seeds within the crop. On the other hand, the book of Matthew chapter 24 promises certain key spiritual landmarks that would visit the planet earth right before rapture (Matthew 24 1-10). Chief among these spiritual landmarks, are wars, diseases, earthquakes, famines, name it. The Lord though, was very quick to also pinpoint out on the role of deception at that hour. Finally, the book of Revelation chapter 6 equally develops a parallel time line to that exhibited in Matthew chapter 24. When the rapture takes place, the church will have been taken together with the Holy Spirit. A period of tribulation will then set in at which it will be virtually impossible to evangelize the Jesus of Nazareth. Therefore, it is very critical that all christians strive very hard to be part of the rapture. The signs that Jesus revealed to his disciples as spiritual landmarks that would manifest right before the rapture are now here with us. These include wars, rumours of wars, famines, droughts, earthquakes, pestilences, floods and fearful events from heavenly bodies are right now in the news. This can only mean that the church has a very acute window within which to prepare for the holy rapture. Apostasy of the last days has long been foretold across the centuries. But to be able to live to see the abominable godlessness of the last days in our time, is extremely humbling (2 Timothy 3:1-7; 1 Timothy 4:1-3). For any believer, to exit the decay-prone body that is made of dust; and then join Christ, they would have to be transformed into the spiritual realm through the power of the Holy Ghost. (Genesis 2:7; Genesis 3:19; Psalms 103:14; Ecclesiastes 3:20). It is equally important for believers to recognize the rapture is a strictly spiritual event and that only spirit-filled believers will see the Lord.

SPIRITUAL SACRIFICE

OFFERING AT THE LORD’S ALTAR IN THESE VERY LAST DAYS

By Dr. OWUOR

At no time has spiritual sacrifice been so critical in the life of the church than now, when the personal hand-written note of God Almighty has been dispatched to the church with the inscriptions saying;

The bible clearly states that as the believers come to him, the Living Stone - rejected by man but chosen by God and precious to Him - they also like the Living Stone, are being built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ (1 Peter 2:4-5). Since the bible elaborates that the church is the Light of the world, then it can only imply that the most important spiritual sacrifice she could ever present to God the Father, is going to be that of living a holy and righteous life to be the image of Christ Jesus. In that way, all the heathen who observe the church live her life on earth, especially in this last dispensation of global economic melt-down, will be inevitably drawn to God the Father for their restitution through salvation. However, before any indepth discussion can accrue in this literature, it is important for the christian readership to understand that sacrifice has always been a very central part of the relationship between God and man over the centuries. All through biblical history, sacrifice has always remained a command by the LORD as a sacred act of worship unto him. To the extent that the LORD asked the sons of Adam, Cain and Abel, to offer a sacrifice unto him, can only help to highlight the extreme significance that sacrifice holds in the Kingdom of God Almighty. The Holy Word of the Omnipotent God promises a latter visitation of the Holy Spirit into the endtime church of Christ, and that this anticipated outpouring of the Holy Spirit is meant to be mightier, more glorious, and more anointed than the former visitation (Haggai 2:9). However, when one examines the church today, one is immediately left with no choice but to wonder why the presence of the LORD is no longer in today’s house. The apparent absence of the glory of the LORD in the present-day church is a clear indication of the grand fall and defilement at the most holy altar of the LORD. This shameful fall has a direct bearing onto the favour of the LORD in the church, and for such favour to return into the house of the LORD, she must first repent and turn away from the sins that have plagued her in order to be restored. In the Bible, everytime there was a fall and defilement in the house of the LORD, there always arose a very desperate need for complete restoration of the house. Such a complete restoration of the altar of the LORD, as strictly obligated by the bible, always encompassed; the priesthood, the covenant; and the sacrifice. Here, critical issues surrounding the process that leads to the much required restoration of the altar of the LORD, were largely dealt with. These processes mainly touch on the priesthood, the covenant, and most importantly, the sacrifice being offered at the altar of the LORD. As a prelude, the sensitive and must-do stages in the restoration of the altar of the LORD are explored. Here in this literature, I outline the pathway that today’s church must go through in order that she may realize not only the mightier endtime outpouring of the Spirit of the LORD, but also the rapture.

It is this outpouring of the latter rain that yields the much promised and celebrated endtime harvest, that is supposed to come immediately after the ultimate repentance and holiness revival. This hence becomes the most important revival to ever visit the church because it essentially prepares the way for the Coming of the LORD and ushers the church into the most anticipated rapture.

REQUIRED STAGES IN RESTORING TODAY’S CHURCH

The Preamble

The process of restoration has always been part and parcel of the life of man (church) ever since he was created by God and placed on the earth. An overview of this restoration that has perennially identified man’s life, can be traced way back from the garden of Eden where man fell from paradise because of sin. Prior to this tragic fall of man, he would spend his time walking with God in the cool of the day as displayed in the book of Genesis chapter 3 verse 8:

“Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the Lord God as he was walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and they hid from the Lord God among the trees of the garden.

This necessitated an urgent and immediate restoration of man in order that he may return to the blueprint of God’s will for him. Before falling into sin, Adam was walking in the cool of the day with the LORD in the garden of Eden. In that garden was a river that watered it and one of the four water heads was called Pishon. When the LORD had just created the earth he said that “Pishon would flow through the land and the gold of that land was good.” Today, that directly implies that he who is the author of all originality longs for the first faithful Christ-centered Church. For God Almighty to have called it good, that means that the gold that was in Havilah was holy, pure and virgin, never tampered with. This means that there was a purity, holiness and presence of God in the land in which Pishon flowed. In the same garden was the Tree of Life and the Ark of the Covenant. There is no way the presence of God would have been there, walking in the cool of the day with man, without the Ark of the Covenant being there, because we know that He is enthroned between the two Cherubim on the Mercy Seat. At that time, At that time before the fall, Adam was busy offering a spiritual sacrifice of obedience that was acceptable before the LORD, hence making him a friend of God. Then Adam fell to sin through the lusting of the eyes, and the LORD put the two Cherubim with flaming swords on the Eastern Gate to stop Adam specifically from accessing the Tree of Life. Because if anyone ate from the Tree of Life, they would be guaranteed of living forever, and hence not being subjected to death at all. That was the purpose of the Tree of Life. After the fall of man, he was pushed out of the Garden of Eden, also popularly known as paradise. So then man found himself in a helpless situation in which he could not access the Tree of Life, let alone Pishon. It must be remembered that Pishon flowed in the land of Havilah.

THE LIFE OF ENOCH

What is most interesting is that the next time God Almighty talked about the land of Havilah, was when He essentially spoke about Enoch, the righteous man. Enoch was literally raptured into the Kingdom of God without ever experiencing death. The life of Enoch is spiritually symbolic of the rapture of the living christians who will be taken up on that day. It is a vivid reminder about the gravity of observing the life of absolute holiness in the church of Christ. This is because Enoch’s holiness caused him to walk with God on a daily basis, as a friend would walk with a friend. And that is why the bible documents that Enoch was no more because God took him away. The Lord God practically raptured him. At the same time, it is absolutely important to realize that Enoch essentially saw the Window Of Justice in heaven, when he walked he saw the vision of the Window Of Justice. The Lord God Almighty has privileged me to see that same Window Of Justice in a mighty vision in which Jehovah opened heaven and showed me that Window Of Justice. That inevitably allowed the church to envisage the spiritual relationship between Enoch, Elijah and Christ Jesus, because the LORD Jesus was raptured on the mountain. Elijah too was raptured as was Enoch. These two, Enoch and Elijah emphasize the rapture of the living believers, a rapture that Jesus Christ of Nazareth blessed the church with at his resurrection. The book of John chapter 11 verse 25 and 26 elaborates on this wonderful that Jesus brought the church, when the Lord said;

“Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will live, even though he dies; “and whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?”

Christ Jesus is the resurrection and hope for those believers who are asleep in the dust of the earth, and the living. That is why Moses was finally able to enter the Promised Land on the Mountain of Transfiguration, only through Christ Jesus. Moses had died and was buried by God himself before their entry into promised land. God Almighty, in his conversation with Moses prior to the death of Moses, he had told Moses that he Moses, would not be able to enter the Promised land.

This the Lord said regardless of the long tortuous journey, that was full of miraculous experiences all the way from Egypt. But through the coming of Christ Jesus, Moses the Man of God was now able to be glorified in the land of Israel, while standing on the Mountain of Transfiguration with Jesus Christ of Nazareth. From that day on, Moses symbolically represented the resurrection of the dead into rapture, while Elijah the Prophet spiritually stands for the translation of the holy living christians who will be taken up in the rapture.

LEVELS OF GOD’S RESTORATION

A thorough examination of biblical scripture reveals four principle levels of God’s restoration in the church. For example, when Adam and Eve fell into sin at the garden of Eden, the glory left the church (man) and death entered into his life. With death now part of his life, man was completely vulnerable and hopeless. God had provided a perfect environment for the first man but, in spite of their ideal surroundings, our first parents fell and failed. This can only help today’s church to understand that although the environment we live in can certainly exert pressure onto our spiritual lives, it is entirely never meant to put us at fault with God, because we were created with the capacity to maintain control. Neither can we forget that satan began his temptation of Eve by planting doubt in her mind concerning what God had said (the Word of God). This has replicated itself very well in today’s church to the extent that some pastors and believers have now reached a place of either doubting the Word of God or interpreting it their own way in order to get away with sin. Here we see that Eve’s confusion as to what exactly God had said made her very susceptible to the schemes of the devil. And in today’s church the believer needs to understand that resisting the schemes of the devil will only come from a firm and solid understanding of what the Word of God says. The church needs a proper understanding of God’s truth if she hopes to stand against satan’s temptation. The question that goes through one’s mind then becomes, wasn’t God alone enough for Adam as this would have avoided the additional Eve factor? We see that Adam walked well in total obedience with God Almighty in the cool of the day until the arrival of Eve materialized in his life. The answer to this is that God intended man to be married, and even most importantly is the spiritual companionship that God intends christians to have. Even for rapture, Jesus himself gave the parable of the church that enters the wedding banquet as being composed of five wise virgins. It was not one virgin, but five virgins he talked about. It only helps to underscore and re-emphasize God’s greatest intention for spiritual companionship in church. But, never did the Lord intend that spiritual companionship would have to damage and defile the relationship between man and his Creator. That implies that in these last days prior to rapture, christians need to be cognizant of the fact that not all companionship can be beneficial for their relationship with God. Today, we see that many christians can fall to sin as group, and get content in sin by the fact that, after all, they are not alone. The Almighty therefore intended that spiritual friendship help to heighten our awareness of God’s presence since it often helps to exhibit God’s grace more clearly through the words and actions of others. Such actions include service to the poor and the needy, even unto the destitute. Moreover, God’s own intention for a spiritual companionship was also meant to create accountability by the evaluation of our progress in areas in which God has called for change. This is because by his own inherent nature, man is more likely to follow through on commitments when someone else knows about them. We today see people practicing this in such areas like diet, health, exercise, job supervision, etc. But how much more should we do this with our spiritual lives? Last but not final, God Almighty of heaven from his humblest intentions also intended that spiritual companionship in the church yield the fruit of encouragement and relief when people experience grief or discouragement. Human beings are often harder on themselves than others would be to them especially close friends in Christ Jesus. In times of grief, christians can speak words of grace and refreshments to the hurting. In such a way that it would lift their Spirit and help them keep focus on God’s love. So one cannot say that the entry of Eve into Adam’s live was the genesis of all sin, because it was all meant for good. All this notwithstanding, death had now entered the life of man.

FIRST RESTORATION OF SACRIFICE

Because of his copious mercies that endure forever, the LORD God having seen that the demise of man was at hand, he deliberately engaged in a relentless pursuit of man’s salvation from death. This, the Lord did in order to restore the spiritual appanage, inheritance and heredity that he had earlier on embedded in the blueprint of creation. When the fullness of time had arrived, the first level of God’s restoration appeared when Christ Jesus came to reinstate the church back on course. The Lord Jesus then died for the church with such an unmatched humility to the point that he was able to restore her into the promise. It is that reinstatement at Calvary that today permits the church to be able to inherit the kingdom of God because of the Power of the Blood of Jesus (John 3:16, 1 Thess. 4:3). Following the restoration of the church at Calvary, the LORD Jesus then went on to establish his redeemed church. In that process of establishing the redeemed church, he commissioned the twelve disciples in a process that made them representative of his entire church. It must be remembered that Judas Iscariot had been immediately replaced. The Lord Jesus then redirected the church to the spiritual direction facing the kingdom of God in heaven. And that is the reason the first primitive church was entirely heavenly focused in their ministry, preachings, sermons, testimonies, and christian walk to mention. When time came for Precious Jesus to leave the disciples, he left a glorious church that he had dearly purchased through his own crucifixion, death and resurrection. That glorious church was composed of the apostles, who began the work after the Holy Spirit had come upon them from on high. That day of pentecost marked the most important threshold for the church; a threshold that has since then become known as the first rain. A flashback at that first primitive and glorious church reveals that they were completely Christ centered. For example, the apostles went to places like Thessalonica through very difficult means of transportation that at times took weeks and months in the sea. They also visited the church in Ephesus, and many other places as they were enabled by the Holy Spirit of the Lord. It is the Holy Spirit that made them very powerfully anointed for the noble works of our holy God. This then became the first level of restoration in which Jesus redeemed the church from death caused by sin. After such a glorious launch of the first primitive church which had now become very powerful following the first rain, then came the second fall in the church.

SECOND RESTORATION OF SACRIFICE IN TODAY’S CHURCH

Coming from the first glorious church, man began to gradually encounter the advent of modernity. And modernity would now have to mean that one has to do certain things in order fit into the world system. The modernization of planet earth with its technological components brought with it a horrendous strife within the believing community. Believers could now get away with all manner of sin in the name of “we are a modern church today”. While the bible continued to emphasize on the greater power and role that the latter would have to play in this last watch of the night, such promises seem to have fallen on the deaf ears of today’s church. The advent of post-modernism has today made this second fall in the church of Christ much more abhorable. This is because many christian believers now feel obliged to even attend secular movies in cinema theatres without feeling the slightest guilt to sin. And yet we all know too well that today’s hollywood movies are full of sexual sin, violence, drugs, alcohol, immorality, defilement and abuse. The question then becomes as to how can the glorious church of Christ that was purchased at such high price be associated with all manner of evil and darkness. Christians today can be found drinking in the bars and actually getting drunk from wine, beers and even strong liqueurs. It is common practice in this day and age to find the “Sunday only” christians who by definition only attend church on Sunday, and yet as they walk out of the church, their concept of God ends right there. On the rest of the weekdays they quickly convert into the so-called underground christians whose tongues are as a matter of fact too weak to confess Christ before their work colleagues. Isn’t it now very obvious that there is a second fall in the church? The rate of divorce and abortions are even higher in the church than among the heathen! The arrival of the false doctrine of prosperity in today’s modern church of Christ is what finally tipped the scales and swang her to the rock-bottom of the pits of hell! From that rock-bottom place she is now bound to hell if not urgently restored. False prophets have today turned the church into their small business store for getting the Holy Spirit? How can their daily unga. The church has today become a means of achieving a daily livelihood, even as pastors perception of the house of the Lord has shifted to a business enterprise. Pastors can even be heard today saying that one must run a church as a business in order to be successful. These they do while training their associates and lieutenants. It is a sad situation of calamitous magnitude that has dawned on this previously glorious house of the Lord. In many parts of the world, different levels of defilement continue to afflict the bride of Christ. For example in Africa, it has now become a near-common practice to hear of bishops who are married to two wives, as though that were not abominable enough before the Lord. On the other hand, there are those pastors and bishops who openly go ahead to inherit women whose husbands have died. There are now those pastors who today have to charge people for prayers. Title deeds and car log books have been demanded from the sheep by unscrupulous and shameless pastors of this age. The bible in the book of Jeremiah chapter 6 verses 13 and 14 say of these days; that ‘...from the least to the greatest, all are greedy for gain, priests and prophets alike...’ Likewise, in the so-called western developed countries, pastors have today resorted to selling bottles of anointing oil through global christian television. They also sell prayer shawls. In one of the most recent episodes of this fall, a world reknown global televangelist whose name I will not mention, came to an African country called Uganda, and charged a fee of $100 for every person that wanted to attend his service. Sad enough, the same world reknown global televangelist told the church in Tanzania that he would not go there to minister to them except that they deposit at least Tanzanian Shillings 600,000,000, an equivalent of about US$ 480,000. It is incredible as to the level of heartlessness, malice, godlessness, lawlessness, and shamelessness that is being exhibited by such so-called world reknown televangelist especially that they can ask for such large sums of money from a poor African nation that simply needs salvation. Money has truly become the biggest curse in the house of the Lord. The immoral and slutty dressing of the christian women in today’s church is not only pathetic for a redeemed people, but also offensive to the non-christians. The pastor’s wives have not been left out on this as they show their newest worldly fads and fashion during worship in the house of Jehovah. For the information of this christian readership, most of the fashions and fads are always intended by their designers for sexual immorality. The pastor’s daughters have today become a shame before the eyes of the world, as they dress carelessly and walk barely naked in public places. The question then becomes, where is the wisdom of the Holy Spirit? How can two blind lead each other, especially when the shepherds are blind and yet the sheep are perpetually awaiting directions from the very blind pastors? It is a qualifiable statement to say that today’s modern church has fallen much lower than the first primitive church of Christ. This calls for a most immediate need for the second deliverance into the church of Christ. Ironically, biblical scripture has been very clear that over the centuries the church would have to need a second restoration (Haggai 2:6-10; Amos 9:11-12). The Holy Spirit visitation that has been promised in the latter outpour bears the full authority for restoring this modern church back to the true purity of the holy church of Christ. If it were not for the promised greater latter outpour of the Holy Spirit, the image portrayed by today’s church would have otherwise been an indication that she is urging Jesus to return to the Cross. This is because even as today’s christian believers walk with such a compromise with sin, they equally portray a deceptive image of the Blood of Jesus. It is as though they are saying that the first Blood that was shed at Calvary wasn’t sufficient enough for delivering them from sin. And yet we know that the Blood of Jesus shed on the Cross is sufficient enough to transform any kind of sinner into a child of God.

LATTER HOLY SPIRIT VISITATION

Because today's post-modern church of Christ has eventually recycled back to sin, God the Father in heaven deemed it fit to promise the latter visitation of the Holy Spirit. It is apparent that such a mighty visitation is urgently needed in order to salvage today's defiled church from sin. In promising the latter outpour of the Holy Spirit, Jehovah squarely meant it for the express purpose of the much-needed second deliverance. This the Lord did that Jesus may not have to return to the Cross. Even going by the vision of November 1st, 2006, in which the Lord lowered the wedding rings for rapture right into the sky, one can quickly gauge the heart of the Father. By greatly dwelling on the tremendous design with which those wedding rings were adorned, I have on each and every occasion touched on their design. By clearly bringing out the old antique-like design with which they were developed, it has emerged without a doubt that there is treasure of the past that God is conveying. It is this old-styled design that greatly bespeaks God's desire for the first holy church, worthy of wearing this glorious rings. If that were a pointer enough to go by, then one could comfortably say that the restoration of today's post-modern church will have to come from nowhere, other than a complete return to the basics of the Blood and the Cross at Calvary. The return to such principle basics was primarily delegated to the latter outpour of the Holy Spirit into this church. Even as Isaiah the prophet saw the vision of rapture, he quickly noticed the central role that the latter outpour would play thereby emphasizing the Morning Dew, in his literature of that vision. This, Isaiah did when he proclaimed, ¹⁹But your dead will live; their bodies will rise. You who dwell in the dust, wake up and shout for joy. Your dew is like the dew of the morning; the earth will give birth to her dead. ²⁰Go, my people, enter your rooms and shut the doors behind you; hide yourselves for a little while until his wrath has passed by. ²¹See, the LORD is coming out of his dwelling to punish the people of the earth for their sins. The earth will disclose the blood shed upon her; she will conceal her slain no longer.

The reality that manifests at the throneroom of God has a lot to do with this intended restoration of the church of Christ from sin. It is because the River of Life that flows from behind the throneroom of God, is principally meant to access the entire four ends of the church of Christ, while infusing her with the life-giving Spirit of God Almighty (Revelations 22:1-6). However, the life-giving Spirit of God Almighty that comes with the latter outpour can only effect change in the church by bringing to her the wisdom of God. This much-needed wisdom of God that is currently lacking in our churches, will be the ultimate determinant factor as to whether a church (christian) is restored or not. I say this very much aware that the Holy Spirit who brings the wisdom of God into the life of the believer, does this by establishing the Fear of the Lord in their christian walk. Wisdom-induced Fear of the Lord in the christian walk will become more and more critical in this age because such understanding has the capacity to clear the current confusion that reigns in the church. There is no doubt that when the latter outpour will broaden the understanding to today's believer to the level that they can discern what is sin and what is godly, then an awakening shall have arrived in the house. Upon being able to identify sin as sin, then the post-modern church of this age will be able to clearly perceive her repentance needs. And that is why the principle role of the latter outpour of the Holy Spirit has always been equated to inducing an endtime repentance revival. Only such a massive repentance revival can turn the church away from sin and appropriately prepare the way for the Coming of the Lord (Isaiah 40:3-5). In this way, sacrificing at the Lord's altar will have then transitioned from the mere ritual traditions and pascal services witnessed in today's services into the holy living of the christians themselves. The turning away from sin, coupled with the brutal shunning of evil is what has lacked in today's church, to the extent that the shepherds can no longer rebuke sin. The motive of the latter outpour of the Holy Spirit then becomes equitable to the maturing of the church since a repentance revival can only mean the turning away from sin and the ushering in of a holiness dispensation in the house. When God Almighty intended to call his servants in their five-fold ministries, their modus operandi was well laid-out in the scriptures as primarily being the growing and maturing of the church in order to attain the full stature of Christ Jesus (Ephesians 4:11-16). Nonetheless, over the centuries we have witnessed the continual perpetuation of spiritual infancy in the church to the extent that a status quo equilibrium has been achieved. It is this status quo that the latter outpour of the Holy Spirit intends to disrupt in order to initiate spiritual growth into the lives of today's christians because it is now absolutely clear that only holiness can grow the church. Attaining the full stature of the spiritual height of Christ is not a joke or a game that can be played around in church on a weekly basis, but a thorough work of discipline through the grace of God under the power of the Holy Spirit. So when Isaiah says that the Morning Dew would expose sin in the church and the blood ever shed on her, and unveil all her slain, he was fundamentally referring to this noble disclosure of sin that the latter Holy Spirit outpour would bring into the church. And to call a spade a spade, it can be summarized that Isaiah the prophet greatly hinted on the massive endtime repentance revival that would be induced into the church of Christ right prior to rapture. That in itself is the true meaning of the second restoration of the church from sin. In effect, it is as though God Almighty is clamouring by saying that in this season he greatly longs for the first faithful, holy church where Paul, Peter and John were apostles.

TODAY'S BROKEN COVENANT

The extreme love of money that has pervaded today's modern church, has everything to do with spiritual prostitution in the house. The love of money, sexual sin, lies, deception, witchcraft, and the prosperity gospel that has invaded the present church, literally constitute a sense of gross lawlessness in the house. It is for that reason that the latter outpour is intended to reinstate the original faithfulness of the primitive church that Jesus had holy communion with. The latter Holy Spirit visitation will achieve this endtime objective by exposing this manner of lawlessness. The holy communion that Jesus had with his disciples right before his departure was a very mighty symbolic act of the covenant of faithfulness that he intended the church to keep and maintain with him even unto the rapture. The Lord graciously pleaded with the church at that holy communion table, thereby literally asking her to keep remembering him in all she does until his return (1 Corinthians 11:17-34). Likewise, the scripture in the book of John chapter 14 verses 1 through 3 clearly present the longing of the Lord Jesus to go prepare a place in his Father's house (in heaven) for his church and then return for her. Many biblical scholars will today agree with me that there is no greater promise to the church than this most blessed assurance. It is a promise that literally overrides and overrules all other interests that the church may have on this temporary earth. But observing today's church with her adopted modernity, it comes out very clearly that she has unfortunately broken the most gracious covenant that Jesus extended to her at that holy communion table. This has really created a serious aberration in her engagements with the world to the point that instead of converting the heathen unto the Lord, she has sadly been converted into the world. One can only imagine the level of agony that this is dissipating right into the heart of the Lord. Moreso, because of the heavy price that was paid at Calvary to purchase the church (Isaiah 53). Although today's christians may be quickened to long for restoration into the spiritual character of the first church, they must anyhow be well aware that such reformation by the Holy Spirit has to surpass the levels experienced at pentecost. This is because reviving today's church to the place at which the first church operated, will not as a matter of fact, fulfil the task for this last watch of the night. The stakes are much higher in this terminal season of the church's life history even as the gross darkness across the earth has almost increased a zillion-fold. Very much aware of the spiritual challenges that would emerge at this eleventh-hour, God Almighty himself promised a greater anointing when he said:

⁹ 'The glory of this present house will be greater than the glory of the former house,' says the Lord Almighty. 'And in this place I will grant peace,' declares the Lord Almighty' (Haggai 2:9).

Without a doubt, it will have to take the overwhelming power and authority of the latter Holy Spirit visitation to restore today's broken covenant in the church. The glory of the latter church has hence to be greater than that of the first century church where Paul, Peter, John and Matthew were apostles. But, this can only mean that there is an urgent and greater spiritual transformation that has to visit the shepherds of today in order to outmatch the generals of the first century church. And that is why all have said that the revival of today's church will have to begin with a much stricter and blunt restoration of its priesthood. It is this restoration of today's pastors that will eventually help alter their value systems from a more earthly-based condition, to a heavenly focused servanthood. The truth of the matter is that the church was created and meant to inhabit her most promised dwelling in the kingdom of God. That habitation though, is a spiritual habitation that cannot be occupied in the flesh and blood (1 Corinthians 15:50-56). As God's people then, the church has been called at this last-hour to live a particular way of life that will bring honesty, integrity, righteousness and holiness unto the Name of Jesus that christians bear. It is just inevitable that the corruptible practices that are perishable in today's church be purged off. The heavenly dwelling to which the rapture will deliver the church is an incorruptible, immortal, imperishable, and eternal spiritual dwelling. It can only make sense that the pastors of today focus on teaching about the spirituality of christianity through the works of the Holy Spirit. The moment such a scenario begins to animate within the house of the Lord, then the second restoration will have essentially been crowned off.

Repentance & Holiness - June 2009

THIRD LEVEL OF RESTORATION

THE SACRIFICE IN CHURCH

The next level of reinstatement of the spiritual sacrifice that the church is supposed to offer at the Lord's altar, will require her complete conformity to the direction of the Holy Spirit. The scripture in the book of Ezekiel chapter 47 verses 1 through 6, best illustrates the level of submission to the Holy Spirit, that will be required at this eleventh-hour. In describing the highest level of the river of the life-giving Spirit of the Lord in that scripture, God Almighty presents the picture of a river that no man can swim, except that they be swept in the direction of the current. The church today has run the full course of her human programmes, by at times even avoiding the will of God in order just to do her thing. It will have to take a devout remnant in the church for the will of God to materialize in the sacrifice that is presented at the altar. A paradigm shift must materialize in today's church in order to write-off the notion that a holier living is not fervent enough for this age. It is the level of zealousness that will be displayed by the Holy Spirit among the christians who are passionate for holiness that will eventually turn the tables in the current church. Being swept in the direction of the Holy Spirit is a phenomenon of this hour as it will teach the christians how to faithfully obey the voice of the Lord even where it does not make logical sense. This will most obviously help to remind the church of the greater importance that is attached to her relationship with God as she lives in this dark and fallen world. This most significant phase of restoration of the church, has everything to do with the complete in-filling of the Holy Spirit in order to attain spiritual maturity. For this reason, prophet Joel was privileged to see this dispensation in which there would be an outpour of the anointing of the Lord to the extent that dreams and visions would be revived in the church. Such a revival will go hand in hand with the obliteration of the falsehood that today claims the church (Joel 2:28-32). As the Lord would begin to speak more through dreams and visions, then the majority of the churches would begin to shy away from involvement in deception, since God himself would now have to reveal the truth. And that kind of truth will go to the finest level of interpretation of tongues, prophecies, and the general revelation on sin. Nevertheless, this final phase of restoration in the church will not be achieved until the right vessels are presented in church for the Holy Spirit to infill. It reminds us of when Jesus performed his first miracle at the wedding in Cana. At that wedding, wine had run out and it was quickly becoming a social embarrassment to the host family since by Hebrew tradition, it was their role to provide the wine. We clearly see in the book of John chapter 2 verses 1 through 11, that for the Lord Jesus to avail the new wine in that festivity they had to present him with empty vessels that were appropriate for carrying water. Immediately following the miracle of the new wine, it occurred to everyone in the wedding that new wine was not only stronger than the first, but also tasted far much better. Today we are enlightened to the fact that the new wine Jesus released at the Cana wedding was stronger and tastier than the former because it is a wine that came directly from the kingdom of God in heaven. In so doing, this kind of wine does not require the biochemical processes of yeast fermentation at all. Now, on August 19th 2008, when God Almighty presented me with a mighty vision on the release of the black horse from his throne, the voice of God himself is then heard cautioning the rider of the black horse. That voice strictly defines to the rider of the black horse that he may not damage the oil and the wine (Revelation 6:1-10). The oil practically represents those christians who have received the infilling of the Holy Spirit at this hour; while the wine is the symbolic demonstration of the strength of that latter anointing as it operates within the believers. One can then eloquently say that the third stage of restoration for today's church is the process of preparing a new wineskin (vessel) that can be acceptable enough to accommodate this most authoritative anointing of the hour. God Almighty by his own standards has decreed that he would not permit the pouring of new wine into an old wineskin. And this is understandable specially having observed the conduct of the church in the most recent times. The latter anointing would go into utter waste if it were poured right into the church at this hour, in the way she is. Today, one sees pastors who are mostly attempting to glorify themselves other than the Lord. Such personal exaltation would amount to touching the glory of the Lord. And that is the main reason why the Lord is first requesting for new wineskin before he can outpour his Spirit into the church. It is true that in some of our meetings, when the Lord outpoured his Holy Spirit and thousands upon thousands of people were delivered and healed, including the physical manifestation of signs and wonders, many including pastors ask 'What does that mean?' The mere fact that even shepherds can ask or not know how to behave when the anointing befalls the entire stadium, points towards a church that needs to prepare first before she can be overflowed. It is true that today the Holy Spirit has not been worshipped much in the church, and neither has he been spoken to in the prayers of the saints. This then becomes extremely contradictory to the biblical scripture that as a matter of fact instructed the church to rely on the Holy Spirit even for her daily prayers. The final phase of the restoration of the church will hence involve the incorporation of the Holy Spirit into the life of the church. This can only mean that the third phase of the restoration of today's church will ignite the most massive endtime revival. This is particularly owing to the fact that the non-believers will observe the wonderful works of the Holy Spirit in the church and get fully drawn to the Lord. Such works will include healing of incurable diseases like HIV/AIDS, cancers, and a massive deliverance from the addictions that have plagued man's life among other great works. While the restoration of today's church would have seemed a complex puzzle given her current state, nonetheless, if she will fully submit to the will of the Holy Spirit, she will realize the much greater anointing promised in the bible. Such anointing the Lord has sanctioned as being greater than the first rain of pentecost. This segment of this particular literature truly validates and appraises the church to the superior position she ought to occupy at this hour. And it must be looked at as a positive attempt by God Almighty to give the church a helping hand that she will still make it.

SIGNIFICANCE OF RESTORED SACRIFICE IN THE CHURCH

The most critical valuation that can be attached to the need to restore sacrifice at the Lord's altar today, is directly related to her entry into rapture. Since the Blood of Jesus is the one and only ultimate sacrifice that is acceptable to God the Father, even as the church presents her offering; then it is absolutely imperative that the church presents only the Blood of Jesus. All the malpractices that have been elaborated above, vividly demonstrate just how far the church of Christ has drifted from presenting the holy Blood of Jesus to God Almighty. As a matter of fact, the evil that has entangled worship in the church is what has greatly affected the church's capability in presenting the holy Blood of Jesus. In this very context, the church must always bear in mind the fact that mixing the sacrifice of the Blood of Jesus with anything else makes such a worship defiled and unacceptable to the Father. Worship is an all or nothing phenomenon especially in this season of the perfectioning of the sainthood in the church. The greatest benefit of restored sacrifice in the church is that it will lead to the rapture of the saints. God in his infinite wisdom perceived much earlier on that there would be a need for the church to attain a stature of perfect sacrificing in Christ Jesus. That is the reason for which Jehovah documented an important prophecy concerning the church and her entry into the kingdom of God. In that prophecy, the scripture says;

²⁶Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over the livestock, over all the earth, [b] and over all the creatures that move along the ground."

And since that image and likeness that is being celebrated in this scripture, is by no means a physical but a spiritual image, then the church of Christ can now better understand the role of the Holy Spirit in this last hour towards rapture. The perpetual infilling of the christian believer with the Holy Spirit is what defines the process of spiritual growth towards maturity. Correspondingly, it is the increased spiritual growth that gradually downloads the sinful desires of the flesh and the worldly inclination of man. Given that the image and likeness of God is virtually immortal, because God never dies, then this can only imply that the level of restoration that brings the church to rapture, is that phase at which she essentially defeats sin. Christians need to understand that God Almighty demands of them to offer their lives on a daily basis as living sacrifices acceptable to him through Christ Jesus. And the only practical way of presenting one's life as a living sacrifice acceptable to the Lord, is when one opts to live a holy life that is in accordance with the will of the Holy Spirit. This is the only way that the church can be pleasing to the Lord given that he is most holy and has no tolerance to sin. In all these considerations, the church cannot afford to lose track of the fact that when Jesus appeared on the earth, God Almighty in heaven immediately transitioned the rules for sacrificing. In that new covenant, the Lord urges the church to never fall to the sin of abusing the grace. It is a fearful event to meditate on the scripture in the book of Hebrews chapter 6 verses 4 through 6 and realize how at times today's modern christians have trampled underfoot and treated as unholy thing the Blood of the covenant that redeemed them. It is my strongest belief that God Almighty is today longing for those christians who will offer their lives as living sacrifices by working out their salvation in Fear and Trembling. If the church had embraced this otherwise simple but very pertinent spiritual principle, the chances that she would have abused the grace of God would have been greatly reduced and minimized. Today, its common to watch preachers in television treat the Blood of Jesus like a common joke. It is indeed fearful to read what the Word says and watch the church today go about her business. That is the reason God in heaven longs to revive the church to the understanding that she ought to wear his image and likeness at rapture. Those ardent christians who will be spiritually prudent enough to realize that this eleventh hour calls for fine tuning their christian walk with the Lord, such persons will definitely see the rapture. The fine-tuning of christian walk is what the Lord defines as perfecting the saints, and it requires working on little basic items like dressing, companions, what to say and what not to say, how to avoid the infectious lying that goes on in church, etc. As goes in the saying, God is in the detail, so will it be in this last season towards the rapture. A fully restored sacrifice in the church, is that worship that centralizes only, and I repeat only, the Blood of Jesus that was shed at Calvary. The Blood of Jesus is power unto the gospel, even unto eternity. While the Cross on which he laid his life represents the heart of the gospel and the way to the kingdom of God. If there is any the increased spiritual growth that gradually downloads the sinful desires of the flesh and the worldly inclination of man. Given that the image and likeness of God is virtually immortal, because God never dies, then this can only imply that the level of restoration that brings the church to rapture, is that phase at which she essentially defeats sin. Those ardent christians who will be spiritually prudent enough to realize that this eleventh hour calls that vision redefines the true meaning of offering a spiritual sacrifice acceptable to God this late in the day. That is because in each of the three most important times that the Lord Jesus said I am Coming in the book of Revelation chapter 22 there was a message implied. In Revelation chapter 22 verse 7, when the Lord Jesus said I am Coming, he purposely added on that, blessed are those who keep the words of the prophecy in the bible. It can only mean that the Holy Spirit is emphasizing on the need for devout christians to have kept the Word of God in their hearts. But we all know too well that the Word of God says that,

⁷'Make every effort to live in peace with all men and to be holy; for without holiness no one will see the Lord' (Hebrews 12:14)

Furthermore, the same Word of God emphasizes that the Lord will come for his glorious church in the middle of the night like a thief. Everyone would now agree that keeping the words of the bible as God's book of prophecy, truly demands offering a sacrifice of holiness through Christ Jesus. And yet if the words of the bible, as God's book of prophecy affirm that the Messiah will come at midnight, then those christians who will have kept the words of the bible as God's timeless book of prophecy, are those christians who will be able to avoid being found in drowsiness, slumber and sleepiness. As a matter of fact, when it came to providing a descriptive narrative of the church that will enter into rapture, the Lord Jesus himself said, that church will by synonymous with the five wise virgins who remained burning the midnight oil as they awaited the groom. It essentially brings new meaning to offering a perfect spiritual sacrifice before God, then that lesson must come from Calvary. The Lord himself made it plainly clear to the church that whoever desired to follow him, should pick up his own cross and follow him. That can only mean that the perfect sacrifice before the Father will most definitely require the help of the Holy Spirit in crucifying the sinful desires of the flesh in the church. Only then, can the spiritual church be birthed out in the image and likeness of God. Such a church will have consequently attained the full stature of Christ Jesus in readiness for rapture. The most recent vision of the Lord in which he presented to me a hand-written note saying;

RAISING THE LORD'S ALTAR

The LORD's altar is a very holy place at which the church fellowships with Jehovah El Sheddai. In this regard, the LORD God gave the church specifications in the holy bible on how she can raise for him a holy altar. But shamefully, the foundation of the church in most countries including Kenya, have not been laid according to the requirements of the LORD God. For instance, in the raising of a holy altar, the Lord demands that no defiled foundation stone be used at all;

²⁵ If you make an altar of stones for me, do not build it with dressed stones, for you will defile it if you use a tool on it. ²⁶ And do not go up to my altar on steps, lest your nakedness be exposed on it (Exodus 20:25).

Contrary to this, the church has not inquired of the Lord on how to raise for him an honourable altar of holiness.

Repentance Revival Visits Tanzania

DEAF EAR POPPED OPEN AFTER 32 YEARS OF DEAFNESS: She suffered 32 years of deafness on her right ear since birth. But when the Prophet of the Lord Dr. Owuor prayed for the deaf, her ear popped open at Dodoma National Stadium.

STOMACH TUMOUR DISSOLVED: This woman had suffered a great deal from a tumour that was a size of a fist. That tumour had lodged itself right inside her abdomen and precisely the stomach. But when the Prophet of the Lord Dr. Owuor prayed for those with tumours by saying, 'Let all the tumours dissolve now in the Mighty Name of Jesus', then immediately she realized that her tumour had dissolved and could not trace it anymore. The doctors had been planning for the Surgical removal of that tumour. Now that operation will not take place because the King of kings who died of Calvary, is also the Chief Surgeon who can operate without incision.

3-YEAR DEAF EAR POPPED OPEN: Mrs Upendo was deaf for the past three years until the day Repentance Revival visited Dodoma Tanzania. As the Man of God prayed for the deaf, her ear too popped open and shocked her.

AN EYE TUMOUR DISSOLVED: This pastor's wife had a tumour on the eye that caused her not to see well nor could she frown or blink her eyes. But when the Power of God came down as the Prophet commanded tumours to dissolve, her tumour instantly dissolved causing her to tremble in Fear of the Lord. One of the Pastors testified that he knew her with that tumour and that when she walked into the meeting she still had that huge swelling on her face. But God Almighty healed her and set her free.

DEAF SINCE 1985: Elizabeth became instantly deaf when a fly, all of sudden, entered through into her ear. And when the doctors diagnosed her, they said that the tympanic membrane had become rotten. She then remained deaf for all that time until on the May 30th 2009, at the Meeting in Dodoma Stadium. When the Man of God prayed for the deaf, she heard and felt like someone was beating drums inside her ears, after which her deaf ear popped open right there and then. The multitude began to give Glory to the Lord as they celebrated that stunning miracle.

A HUGE TUMOUR IN THE ABDOMEN DISAPPEARS: Bila Mkilima had a large tumour in her abdomen for a long time. And her doctors were preparing her for a major surgery. But when the Power of God came down, that tumour instantly dissolved. She wept ceaselessly with joy!

A DEAFNESS OF MORE THAN 10 YEARS INSTANTLY HEALED: This particular woman had been deaf for more than 10 years and even her neighbours who were in the meeting came forward to testify that she had surely been deaf for a very long time. But when the Prophet of God Almighty Dr. David Owuor prayed for the deaf and commanded that all deaf ears pop open, this woman's 10-year old deaf ear popped open in a bizarre incident that shocked all as she began to hear very clearly. Upon her healing, every sound that came through her ear appeared to be too loud for her just to emphasize how the Lord clearly opened her ear.

DODOMA TANZANIA
REPENTANCE REVIVAL: A massive Repentance Revival broke out in Dodoma Tanzania on May 30th 2009. When the Prophet of the Lord Dr. Owuor prayed and asked God Almighty to visit the National Stadium in Dodoma, the Mighty Shekinah Glory of the Lord descended with such Tremendous Power that many people were slayed left and right, and consequently bringing in a mighty healing and deliverance on the people of Tanzania. Many were shocked and stunned that a man could stand at the altar of the Lord and speak with God Almighty in the hearing of all, asking God to visit, and that God would answer instantly in less than one minute by visiting that place, very mightily in his Glory.

CHRONIC BACKACHE HEALED

She unfortunately has not sought the counsel of the Lord in constructing this most important place of worship. Regrettably today, the church has been raised using stones that have already been 'touched' with tools and thereby defiling the foundation stones. The tools that have defiled the holy altar of the Lord include sexual sin, lying, idolatry, false prophecies, love of money, witchcraft, traditions and cultural practices, having traditional folk songs, among others. As a result of this, most churches that are being raised today often start off on a wrong footing and it is hence no wonder, they cannot command any favour or authority from the LORD. It is absolutely critical to understand, exactly how specific the Lord is when it comes to the laying of the foundation stone for his altar. What most servants of the Lord miss out on, is the fact that they raise altars without perceiving that even as we build these churches, they do not belong to us, but to him alone. This hence means that he has to be pleased with whatever structure is raised as his dwelling, in order that he may willfully visit in his glory. During King Solomon's dynasty, David his father had earlier on been instructed accordingly not to raise any altar unto the Lord owing to the blood on his hands. Even though David himself had desired to stretch for the Lord a tent of honour, Jehovah did not permit him because of the stringent requirements regarding the raising of an altar. And there is no doubt in anyone's mind that God Almighty for sure loved David, to the point that God called him 'the man after God's heart'. Except that when it came to the laying of the foundation stone for altar of the Lord's dwelling, no amount of love was sufficient enough to repeal or defer the rigorous written requirements for building the house. Finding that he was confronted with such a humongous noble task of raising an altar unto the Lord, King Solomon at the onset of his reign decided to consult the written Word of God. Having carefully studied the requirements of the Lord in raising an altar, then King Solomon eventually embarked on this humongous task. He however put in place a very strict set of instructions to all the temple builders, that he may raise the house unto the LORD following the Word of the book of the law. The testimony that King Solomon put down on record regarding this noble task of raising a holy altar unto the Lord, is one of extreme awe and shock. Given that the Word of God has strictly forgiven the touching of any stone with a tool lest they be defiled, King Solomon ensured that from the beginning that till its completion, no iron tool was heard touching the stones at the site of the temple construction (2nd chronicles 7). This can only help to underscore how much the Lord treasures virginity of heart in worship. It is nowonder even when it came for Israel to offer a holy sacrifice before the Lord, he insisted on the firstfruit being brought for him alone first. When King Asa took the utensils of worship from the house of the Lord and set them at the street corners thereby allowing them to be used for worshipping idol gods, Jehovah was very quick to reject any form of worship in that land including declaring the temple doors shut. To the extent that they offered lame, blind, deaf, mute, diseased animals before the Lord, he again declared that the temple doors be shut, instead of having to entertain such useless and strange fires. Also, when it comes to the rapture of the church, God the Father in heaven, first received Jesus Christ of Nazareth as the firstfruit from among the dead because he was virtually undefiled and without sin. That can only mean that by the merit of his own blood, Christ Jesus was totally and completely untouched by any sin (Colossians 1:18). The scripture in the book of Malachi chapter 1 verses 6 through 10 depict God Almighty's sacrifice as being only perfect and nothing else. But for King Solomon, because he stuck to the written requirement on how to raise the altar of the Lord, on the day of its inauguration, God Almighty was faithful enough to visit the house. That visitation was so mighty that during the dedication of that holy and undefiled altar, the Shekinah glory of the LORD descended into the temple and the fire of God fell from heaven. It made the high priests stop the service while all people lost their visibility and lay with their faces down. When Jesus died on the Cross and resurrected, he literally transferred the altar of the Lord in the church from a mere earthly sanctuary at which the blood of animals were being sacrificed, into a spiritual tabernacle at which his own Blood was the sacrifice. Inside the spiritual tabernacle of the Lord, is found the ark of the new covenant that represents the altar at which the blood of Jesus has been poured for the sins of mankind. However, in the construction of the ark of the new covenant, God Almighty becomes very particular on the dimensions and the materials to be employed (Exodus 25: 10-22). Therefore, it is imperative that the foundation of the church be rebuilt according to the written Word of the LORD, if she is to receive the latter visitation prior to rapture.

Restoring The Priesthood

From time immemorial, the priesthood that serves at the LORD's altar has always held the key for delivering the land and the people to the LORD or away from him. This is because at the time of his resurrection and departure, our Lord Jesus handed over the authority of God Almighty to the church. But the true custodians of that authority today, are the shepherds who serve on a daily basis before the Lord. The priesthood was designed by the Lord to be the liaison between man and God and between God and man. For that matter, the shepherds can speak to the Lord on behalf of the people, while they can also relay the information of the Lord to the people. It therefore becomes absolutely critical that the shepherds receive favour from God Almighty as they approach the LORD's altar. It is greatly deplorable that the shepherds of today's church have not been well raised according to the will and command of God Almighty. This has been mainly attributed to the perpetual recycling of sin that has continually persisted from one generation of servanthood to the next. Such recycling of sin has mainly thrived on the concept of spiritual fatherhood where one pastor, whether fallen; raises and mentors another on the same values. It is a sad scenario that has strongly contributed to the current lack of favour of the Lord that we see among today's pastors. This has actually become the main input that has led to the fall in the church as we see it today. Of course, the repercussion of which is the lost and diminished command that the church wields before God and man. The glory of the Lord has even left her, causing her to operate at a minimal level much lower than the first anointing. The most vivid sign of this kind of fall in the priesthood can be seen in the relentless focus on material and monetary gains from the sheep rather than serving the LORD in complete holiness (Ezekiel 34; Jeremiah 23 and Isaiah 56: 9-12). It is a classical model that the Lord mentions in the book of Jeremiah chapter 6 verses 13 through 14 when the Lord says,

'from the least to the greatest all are greedy for gains, prophets and priests alike, all practice deceit. They dress the wounds of my people as though it were not serious. 'Peace, Peace,' they say, where there is no peace.'

The preaching of the gospel of prosperity which focusses on money and seed sowing, has today become the iconic symbol of apostasy in the church. It is a corruption that has literally attempted to bribe the LORD God while grossly lacking in holiness which, as a matter of fact, is the most important benchmark before the LORD.

In order to fully restore the present priesthood back to her promised state, there will be an urgent and increasing need to understand the mind of God concerning his priests.

Anointing Today's Pastors

Biblical scripture brilliantly reminds us of what it takes for the priesthood to receive the anointing of the Lord. The significance of such anointing is greatly accentuated by when the Lord had sent Moses to anoint Aaron in order to become a priest in the house of the Lord (Exodus 30:22-33). This meant that Aaron would now have to directly minister right before the holy presence of God. To accomplish the Lord's most noble instruction, Moses was commanded to use the following fine spices of liquid myrrh, fragrant cinnamon, fragrant cane, cassia, and a hin of olive oil to prepare the sacred anointing oil with which Aaron should be anointed. Upon anointing Aaron with the sacred anointing oil, the favour of the LORD befell Aaron so he could minister as a priest at the altar of the LORD. As a result of this, the favour of the LORD that descended on Aaron became the anointing that enabled him to serve before the Lord. That kind of favour is essentially the anointing of the Holy Spirit that is supposed to fall on the servants of the LORD in today's church. The favour of God over the life of Aaron, continued to grow from one level to the next as he served the Lord and Israel from one year to the next. God's favour in the lives of his servants always serves as an important sign of the approval of God on their ministries. When Moses anointed Aaron with the sacred anointing oil, each fraction of the respective components that made up the oil formulation brought with it a specific transformation in the character of Aaron. That transformation was most critical on Aaron if he were to be distinguishably differentiated from the rest of the Israelites. For the Lord, a clear separation between his priesthood and the common persons is always an important attribute of the separated life he longs to realize among his shepherds. And the same goes for the pastors of today's church of Christ. God Almighty has continued to desire that pastors live a totally separated life from the rest of the flock. A spiritual transformation is what accounts for the separated life of consecration that God desires. Often times the greater the spiritual separation, the higher the consecration in the life of the pastor. It is this particular life of spiritual separation that made service in the priesthood be viewed as a mundane task, that was literally revered by all. This was because living a separated life practically meant the realization of self-denial in one's life. Throughout the bible, we see that for the servants of the Lord to receive the favour of the LORD during service, they had to embrace this separated lifestyle. And the question then becomes, 'what became of today's pastors who don't in any way seem to revere the collar?' Many times young men and women of this dispensation have gone into pastoring as a last resort having failed to secure jobs or any other lucrative careers in the market place. For that reason, the concept of servanthood has unfortunately shifted from that of a calling into a separated lifestyle, into a more casual career-type engagement. This goes a long way in explaining why there has been a substantial fall in the priesthood of the present-day church since the absence of a separated life among pastors also as a matter of fact, implies the lack of holiness in the same. Under such circumstances as prevailing in today's church, one is left with no choice but to long for the reinstatement of the kind of separated lifestyle that demarcated the lives of servants from the multitude, in the old church. To a greater extent the goodwill to live a separated holy life unto the Lord appears to have faded away over the centuries with the advent of modernity. If a devout priesthood were to ever be entertained again in the church, then we have no choice but to revert back to the kind of separated lifestyle that Samuel the prophet lived. Samuel's exhortation to the Israelites gives a clear picture of the extent of spiritual renewal that a separated priesthood can initiate within a fallen church. Like has happened in the church today, the people of Israel were helpless as they faced the attacking Philistines. They did not know what to do so they turned to Samuel for help. Because of the high level of spiritual separation that Samuel had in his life, he was then able to confront defiled Israel by asserting to them the following governing principles:

i) Samuel told the Israelites to first of all, get rid of their foreign and idol gods that had in the first place brought about the calamities they were faced with.

ii) Samuel the prophet also demanded of the Israelites to vow and to determine that this time around they would obey God's command and no other.

iii) Samuel the prophet asked Israel to make up her mind and decide whether she would, this time around, worship only Jehovah and no other.

Revival into today's fallen church will also begin in the same way. First, by the re-establishment of a spiritually separated lifestyle among the pastors to the extent that compromise with sin will be something of the past. Second, that highly separated priesthood must then come forward to the people with the truth about their spiritual condition; and about what God Almighty is saying. Third, with such a priesthood in place, such pastors must then rise up and demand of the christians today to first get rid of the idols in their lives. By the way, anything that controls us and commands greater loyalty than God’s in the life of a christian, constitutes an idol. For this to materialize, it must involve a deep self examination and an honest assessment of motives and priorities and the admissions of the sins and disobedience of the church. It is only after such a sincere acknowledgment of sin, that the christians in today’s church would then repent and fully surrender to God, while recognizing their accountability to him and accepting full responsibility over their lives. The tragedy in this present-day church, is that the compromised priesthood has not pointed out sin as sin to the flock. And this has inevitably bred the culture in which the believer’s devotion to God has been largely hidden and their confession to him secret hence placing into doubt their actual surrender to him. Such foregoing underground pseudo-christianity must be gotten rid of through a public repentance process. Therefore, it makes a lot of sense to affirm to the christians that they need to be grieved by the sinful status quo in the church. The restoration of the priesthood in the church becomes a very critical element that will eventually permit God to transform the church by redirecting her course and making way for a better future to the believer. The Samuel priesthood had come at a time when putrefication had eaten into the clergy. But when Samuel’s separated priesthood appeared into the scene, Samuel promised the Israelites that only their obedience would result in God’s deliverance from the Philistines. Today’s church, too, can rest assured that God will give her a fresh start in her spiritual lifestyle as she uses the above keys that he has set before us. Last but not least, the fact that Samuel the prophet set up a stone called Ebenezer, which means the ‘stone of help’ should remind today’s pastors of the fact that, no matter how bad it may look, God is our help. That this help from the Lord comes at all times when a fall presents in the house, should be a vivid reminder to the present-day pastors that God’s help does not come as a onetime antidote. To the contrary, biblical cycles are always bound to repeat themselves in the house of the Lord, hence always requiring the same remedy; the repentance and complete return to the Lord.

Eradicating The ‘Spiritual Germs’

However, it is much more fascinating to comprehend what that liquid myrrh had earlier on derived its primary use among the Near-Eastern communities, mainly as a plant exudate with antibiotic activity. Liquid myrrh principally came out of an extraneous process that involved the crushing of pieces from the bark of the myrrh tree. The longer and finer the crushing goes, the more liquid myrrh exudates are released for utility. In that way, liquid myrrh was often found applied on small wounds, sores, and cuts that may have appeared on the skin. By such application, the antibiotic activity of liquid myrrh was then given the opportunity to wipe out any germs that may have gained entry into the broken skin surfaces. Likewise, is the role of the Holy Spirit of God Almighty in the church. Just as, in the same way, did the sacred anointing oil touch Aaron and its liquid myrrh component bring purification unto his life, so does the spiritual myrrh components of the Holy Spirit descend on the life of an anointed pastor of this age. The secularism that has today claimed our christian homes, has not spared any candidate marked for God’s calling either. It hence becomes imperative that the anointing of the Holy Spirit first purify the secular world with which people who are called into service, come. The anointing of Holy Spirit is principally intended to purify the world out of the priesthood be it pastors, bishops, evangelists, etc. The question then becomes,

‘could it be that the worldliness that is currently being witnessed in today’s church, is a sign of the fact that the pastors themselves were not initially purified off the world?’

It is the freedom from the love of money and the things of the world, that the Lord is emphasizing through the purification of the Holy Spirit. Fragrant cinnamon stands in for the obedience that is required of the servants of the Lord. It is common knowledge that serving Jehovah our God requires an extremely high level of obedience to his Word and his ways. In the bible, everytime the shepherds of Israel became disobedient to the Word of God, a calamity befell the land and afflicted the Israelites. The fragrance that cinnamon emits within the sacred anointing oil is directly equitable to the fragrance of worship that comes out of an obedient servant of God. The crucifixion of Jesus on the Cross has until today remained the mightiest act of obedience to God Almighty. One cannot help but envisage the tough spiritual warfare that ensued at the garden of Gethsemane right prior to the Lord’s crucifixion. Jesus had exclaimed that ‘the flesh is weak but the Spirit is willing’. However, the weakness of the flesh was overruled by the wilful obedience of the Lord Jesus to go to the Cross. Precisely, the exact act of crucifixion on the Cross is the highlight of obedience to our God in heaven that can never be forgotten. Just to emphasize the importance of obedience, God himself reiterates that, ‘obedience is better than sacrifice’ (1 Samuel 15:22). The pleasure with which the Lord receives the sacrifice of obedience can only be gauged by the manner in which the Lord sacrificed on the Cross, quenched the anger of God in heaven against sin, and satisfied his requirement of sacrifice to the point of atoning for all the sins of mankind. And if Jesus is the order of priesthood after which the present-day pastors have been called, then it is just obvious that the Lord is requiring of them an equal crucifixion of self, for the sake of serving the Creator. The events of Isaiah chapter 53 go a long way in underscoring just how important it is to the Lord that today’s pastors be crushed in order to exude the fragrance of spiritual cinnamon in their lives. It is ironical, that for cinnamon to be of utility to man, it often has to be crushed into fine powder. The figurative representation of the crushing is what God Almighty requires of today’s pastors. The anointing of the Holy Spirit in the life of today’s pastors was expected to come with a special level of spiritual cinnamon that was expected to permit such pastors to be crushed into humbleness. When Jesus humbed himself on the Cross, he for sure was then able to be crushed and exude such an unmatched level of worship fragrance in his ministry, to the extent that his Blood completely saturated the throne of God Almighty in heaven,

⁵ But he was pierced for our transgressions, He was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon him, and by his wounds we are healed (Isaiah 53:5).

It is incredible that in the production of sacred anointing oil from myrrh, cassia, calamus, cinnamon and olives, one is required to crush these elements in order to exude their usable fractions. As in to qualify this manner of fractionation, the more one crushes these components, the more fragrance they emit. This means that a restored priesthood that will receive favour from the LORD in order to release the latter glory into the church, has to be anointed by the Holy Spirit of God. Moreover, the anointing of the Holy Spirit in the church will always lead to the state of being crushed among the pastors and the congregations alike. And this is the key to worshipping the Lord in the spirit and in the truth with such an enormous fragrance. In order to restore today’s shepherds the church needs to appreciate that the LORD Jesus is our high priest whose only example should be followed. The hin of olive oil used in the anointing formulation, illustrates the great anointing that would flow through a crushed servant. Spiritual perseverance becomes a very important trait of servanthood especially in these last days when God Almighty has already released a hand-written note saying:

THE LAST SUPPER COVENANT

Biblical scripture reminds us that our hope leads to an eternal existence beyond the grave. It is this truth concerning the resurrection of the dead and translation of the living at rapture that motivates us to make right choices and live behind our old way of life. However, if death were to be the end of everything, then a selfish pleasure-seeking lifestyle would have been a justifiable alternative. But today we know too we that that is not the case. If we do things God’s way we will have an eternity of joy and peace to look forward to. And yet, if we decide to do things our own way, we face an eternity of suffering in hell. Obedience to God’s Word is always about the choice between heaven or hell. Sometimes our fear of death can move us to seek God and surrender to him; while the same fear of death can also lead us into great despair. That Jesus Christ has conquered death and sin through his resurrection, avails to the church such a new covenant of power to work within. Such a covenant of resurrection Power was availed to the church on the day Jesus broke the bread, gave thanks and gave to them. The symbolic act of taking a glass of wine, giving thanks, and giving each one to drink from it at that table of Last Supper; powerfully demonstrates the massive anointing in the Blood of Jesus, that God Almighty wanted to flow through the church. It was the best example yet that God Almighty is willing to some day, to convert our weak bodies by replacing them with glorious and more powerful new ones. As the disciples drank from the cup of the wine that signified his shed Blood, that action became the exemplification of the glorious inner growth that God desires all christians to experience in order to prepare day by day for the overwhelming glory and blessing that they will experience in the presence of God Almighty throughout eternity. The deepest unveiling from the events at that Last Supper point towards the fact that, if we trust God to help us in this life of decay and death, then we can be sure of his glorious blessing in the future. The physical reality though, is that dust will return to dust. Too many people undergo this depressing reality during the process of aging and they often long to avoid it. The fact that a large number of people today pay great sums of money for cosmetic surgery, hair-colouring, wig-wearing, and the like, is evidence of that. And yet they forget that at the table of Last Supper, there is a comforting side to aging and death if we trust and wait on Jesus Christ for our salvation. Before long, as the Lord has promised, we will ‘turn in’ our present physical bodies and receive glorified eternal bodies. This spiritual transformation will take place at rapture when the glorified holy church has to meet the Lord in his glory in the sky. This promised loss of our decaying bodies, into spiritually glorified bodies , is as a matter of fact guaranteed by the Holy Spirit in the presence of the lives of the christians. That implies that the more we are infilled with the Holy Spirit the closer we are to that point. In the book of John chapter 14 verses 1 through 3, Jesus promises us that he is going to the Father to prepare a heavenly dwelling for us. After which the Lord promises to return for the church. Nonetheless, the fact that Jesus of Nazareth requested the church at the table of Last Supper, to remember him until his return, greatly underscores a most important covenant that the Lord was presenting to the church. It is also the best evidence that God is preparing better bodies for us and a better place of residence for us, beyond this life. Because of that, the replenishing of our decay-prone physical bodies through the drink of the cup at the table of Last Supper, implies that never should covenant-keeping christians fear death anymore. In that way, the cup of the Blood of his covenant at the table of Last Supper, reduced death to just a mere doorway to eternity with God (John 14:2-3). It is therefore important for the christians in the church to surrender their lives to God and seek to do his will. Through the power of the drink of the Last Supper covenant, the new life that christians experience in Jesus Christ becomes so far reaching and complete that it can be literally said that they have become brand new creation. But even with this, it the novel process of spiritual growth that eventually obliterates the old-thought patterns and bad habits among christians, as such residual worldliness eventually vanish. Through the power of the Holy Spirit, resident in the Blood of Jesus at the Last Supper cup of the Covenant, a complete transformation is possible in every area of christian life. Moreover, to best understand the weight of the Last Supper covenant, one needs to examine the events in heaven. It will again depend on how much the church kept the words of Jesus at the last Supper covenant when it comes to God’s judgment seat. This is because all christians will have to stand before God’s judgment seat and receive his piercing evaluation on how much or not, they kept the word of Jesus at the Last Supper Covenant table. Jesus himself reiterated that if anyone loved him he would obey his teachings, and His Father in heaven would love that christian, and the two of them (Jesus and the Father) will come to him and make their dwelling in him. At the judgment seat of God, those christians who believed and kept the words of Jesus at the Last Supper Covenant (salvation of the Blood), for them, this judgment will also include an award ceremony. As the rapture has drawn nearer, it is therefore important to understand that our actions and commitment to the Blood of Jesus will bear eternal consequences. It calls for christians to think twice before they can act or speak. Both of which will be judged. On the day of rapture, the holy church of Christ will be taken up into the wedding supper of the Lamb. But that notwithstanding, she must as a matter of fact still present herself before the judgment seat of God. Events at the table of Last Supper immensely appreciate the fact that every wedding is by and large preceded by a pre-wedding covenant of faithfulness binding to both parties. Our God is a God of covenant, who honours every covenant he makes with man. Last but not least, the cup of the covenant that Jesus presented at the table of the Last Supper reaffirms that for the church for the church to function effectively she must be driven by God’s dynamic and unlimited power. We all know too well that the only dynamic and unlimited power is the Holy Spirit of the Lord. However, by gifting the different disciples differently, God Almighty helps facilitate our understanding of the gifts of the Holy Spirit. All the gifts of the Holy Spirit in the church are for practical purposes intended to enhance the growth of the church towards maturity, of full stature with Christ for rapture. Moreover, although God’s plan for us is centered on his Sovereign purposes and power, we too must be alert to the understanding that we have responsibilities as well. God demands that the inner renewal received at the Holy Communion table be extended to the perishing world that they too may give praises to our eternal Father in heaven. The specific gift that the church of Christ in this age needs to tap from the events at the Last Supper, is that of humbleness. This is because, even though Jesus is the Son of the Living God, he bowed down and washed the feet of his disciples as a covenant of the Last Supper. And yet for him to have surrendered his life to the Cross, it was another incomparable act of humility in humbleness. That means that, as much as what we believe in God Almighty is crucial, but, most critical is the manner in which we live our christian lives. Spiritual growth in the church will most certainly be hindered if she allows pride and stubbornness to prevent her from honestly reflecting on her life and admitting her sins. However, if the church humbles herself and trusts God to help her, then his Holy Spirit will transform her life with love, patience and power. The question then becomes, ‘could it be that the current hindered spiritual growth in today’s church may have arisen from stubborn pride? It is true that the pride that exists in today’s church of Christ, has caused God not to release his Holy Spirit unto her. By depositing his covenant purpose into the inner being of the disciples, through the cup of the covenant, the Lord was able to gift his apostles differently that all may work as one body. Having drank from the same cup of his Blood, they still came out with different gifts as they served Jesus. This can only imply that the Last Supper covenant stresses the importance of the unity of faith within the body of Christ, in order to make significant spiritual gains. That can only mean that the Holy Spirit is always going to gift us in ways that will make others necessary to us. For example, one may have a very strong gift in teaching the Word of God, while the other may have the gift of caring for the hurting or interpreting tongues. There is no need to panic in these last days prior to rapture in order to figure out what gifts have been deposited inside the respective members of churches. But it is through prayer and a continued meditation on the word of God, that when the church seeks him, he is faithful enough to show them what their spiritual gifts actually are. When Jesus cried out to the Israelites by saying,

‘O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you, how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing (Matthew 23:37).

there is no better place at which to understand the strongest desire of the Lord for the unity of faith than this. And that is the reason he allowed all the disciples to share from one glass of the drink. The purpose was that the church may then be able to stay as one body regardless of the diversity of the spiritual gifts. Nowonder at rapture all the spiritual gifts in the church converge for one purpose in the building of the body of Christ to attain spiritual maturity, within the unity of faith (Ephesians 4:11-16). For that matter, today’s church needs to perceive that the Last Supper covenant greatly values the unity of faith within the body of Christ. It is ironical that this particular lesson from the Last Supper Covenant has been the most flouted of all, with churches splitting on a daily basis. Consequently, in sharing the cup of the Blood of his covenant at the table of the Last Supper, Jesus intensely demonstrated that our relationship with others who share in our faith are an essential source of shared mutual help. When one christian is down, the strength of another christian can lift them up through the word. That implies that when christians share their spiritual lives with others, coupled with their different spiritual gifts, they will most certainly built up others and provide them with the necessary encouragement to preserve the spiritual gains in their lives and others. This phenomenon is equivalent to when a teacher begins to teach a certain verse in the bible, and later they realize that the more they teach the more eloquently are translated in their own lives. And because of this occurrence, today’s christians who are spiritually transformed should continue in prayer that they would attain spiritual maturity, not only for their own personal good but for the betterment of the entire congregation. Spiritual growth in the life of the believer would require that the believer prays that the newly born-again christian in the church would develop such an intense love for God that would flow to others in their cadre. The inter-dependence that Jesus presented during holy communion requires that, when one christian grows and overcomes even evil, then they would be a model of triumph of what was contained in the cup of his covenant at the Last Supper. The greatest accountability in the church will have to give before God is what exactly they did with the Blood of Jesus. Jesus himself was extremely accountable with his own Blood to the extent that he endured that its shedding completely purchased all human kind from sin. This included all tribes, peoples, languages, dialects, nations, name it. It is as though Jesus was aware that at his return to the Father he would have to give a complete account as to whether he had completed the task of redeeming mankind. But, the act of holy communion does not exonerate the church from that accountability. As a matter of fact, it increases the responsibility that believers have over ensuring that the Blood of Jesus achieve its intended purpose. We that have shared in the cup of his covenant having been enlightened free of charge, have the moral obligation to reach out to those in the dark world. Moreover, even with the Blood of Jesus and the covenant of the Last Supper, every christian still has the personal responsibility to account for their lies, actions and attitudes on the day when God will hold all people accountable. And since the Blood of Jesus is our guarantee hope to enter into rapture with Christ Jesus, then it would amount to abusing the grace for any christian that has shared in the cup of the covenant to miss rapture. Given that this time he will come unexpectedly, we christians who share in the holy communion of the Lord should hence ensure that we stay alert and ready at all times. This is especially important in this age when there tends to be a lot of procrastination among christians in the church. We are called upon to fear the Blood of Jesus and treat it with great honour by reacting immediately with repentance whenever we see sin. The Lord does not want the church to delay confessing her sins because lest she be caught unaware at rapture. The scripture clearly says that noone knows the day nor the hour except God the Father in heaven. Therefore, the message of the Last Supper covenant in the church is a message of the superiority of the Blood of Jesus. The meticulous manner in which Jesus took a towel and wrapped around his waist and washed the feet of his disciples, vividly explores on the evangelical nature of the Last Supper Covenant in the church. In this regard, christians who have tasted of the cup of is covenant are hereby called upon to minister and evangelize to others by actively participating in God’s on-going work on earth. This evangelism is what brings hope to the lost souls while preserving the spiritual gains already scored in the church. The Holy Spirit then becomes very central in such evangelism at this last hour (Daniel 12:2-3). Having washed the feet of the disciples, the Lord Jesus said that now that he as their Lord and teacher had washed their feet, they also should wash one another’s feet. The Lord said that he had set for them an example at that table, and they too should the same to one another. Immediately after that, he further reiterated at the Last Supper table that no servant would be greater than his master, nor was any messenger greater than the one who sent him. He even promised that given that they now knew those things they would be blessed if they practiced them. If only the church of Christ would have grasped this basic principle that the Lord Jesus taught at the table of Last Supper, then the entire earth would have been evangelized by now. And the true restoration of pastors in the body of Christ today, will not come until they too have learnt to disciple others for Jesus, and send them. Moreover, this discipling of people in the Name of Jesus is what eventually bring revival into the church. Today’s pastors are either too busy to disciple anyone, of too jealous to disciple a youth or simply not aware of this tremendous lesson that Jesus left at the table of the Last Supper.

SALVATION

To receive Jesus as Lord & Saviour, please say this prayer:

Lord Jesus, I repent today of all my sins. Please wash me with the Blood of Jesus. Write my name in the Lamb’s Book of Life in heaven. Please send me the Holy Spirit to help me live in holiness. Please protect my heart. In Jesus Name.

Amen

Repentance & holiness

CHRISTINE METIAN: ONCE CRIPPLED NOW HEALED

Christine Metian was born crippled and greatly suffered because she could not move. She could not walk and was rendered virtually invalid. But during the Nakuru Repentance Meeting on March 19th 2006, the Power of the Holy Spirit touched her right before the eyes of many people

A) When the Tremendous Power of the Lord touched her in the middle of the meeting at Afraha Stadium. All people watched as God healed her.

B) When the Power of God had just touched Christine Metian and she had not yet learned how to walk and was still on the ground.

C) The crowd celebrated her healing and walked with her all the way from Afraha stadium towards the city centre.

D) Christine Metian now in 2009 very strong and standing on her two healed legs.

E) As if to humour man, God Almighty strengthened Christine Metian's legs so strong that she ended up buying a sewing machine. She today uses her previously shrivelled legs for sewing. What a humorous God we serve.
